INTRODUCTION

Due to the amount of additional information found on the first eight generations together with data on the descendants of some lines it seems logical at this point, end of ninth generation, to include in Volume IV a supplement to the first eight generations, Volumes I and II and thus be able to carry their lines forward in subsequent volumes.

For those records in which a correction or additional information has been added the entire record will not be repeated - just the errata and/or addenda will be published. If a complete new record is added it will be published complete with numbers indicating the connection.

As will be noted from the amount of material in the Supplement, much has been added. Lost families and branches are being located either by the compiler having found records from other sources such as cemetery records, court records, and family histories, or families researching their own lines have in some way found the compiler and contacted her. Thus much progress is being made on the entire Tingley family history.

As might be expected this has delayed the publication of the fourth volume but volumes are being compiled and made ready for the printer as rapidly as time permits. Tenth generation will begin in Volume V and continue in subsequent volumes, as many as necessary, to include all records available in tenth generation before starting on the next generation.

There have been requests for a picture of the compiler so a picture showing her at work on The Tingley Family Revised has been included in this Volume IV, frontispiece, so contributors of records may know and see to whom they are sending their records for publication.

Again, "Anyone finding any errors in these records or having additional records of any family of Tingley blood, is earnestly requested to communicate the same to the compiler of this revision, Mrs. Marian M. Frye, R.F.D. #3, Box 168, Elkton, VA 22827, U.S.A., so they may be added in volumes to follow."

08-00815-05 EMMA DIANTHA WHITE-EMLEY[9] (Diantha[8], Rial[7], Lucy[6], Thomas[5], Timothy[4], Thomas[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Wisner, NE, born July 25, 1862 at Lenox Twp., PA; died Aug. 6, 1915 at home in Wisner, NE, a long illness from T.B., buried in Wisner Cemetery at Wisner, NE; married Oct. 8, 1884 at Wisner, NE, Joseph H., son of Joseph Samuel and Mary Magdalene (Beard) Emley, of Wisner, NE, born Apr. 24, 1853 at , IN; died at [201].

Emma Diantha White spent the early part of her life with her parents at Lenox, PA and with them she subsequently lived at Harford and Factoryville, PA, where she grew to womanhood. After finishing a course of study in the public schools, she attended the Keystone Academy at Factoryville, where she became especially interested in Elocution. In 1882 she came to Nebraska and located at Wisner, where she taught school three terms in District No. 43, having previously taught several terms in Pennsylvania.

She was married on October 8, 1884 to Mr. J. H. Emley of Wisner, and here they have since made their home. Three children were born to this union. Mrs. Emley united with the Congregational church at Wisner in the year 1886, for many years was an active member, and maintained her membership in this church until her death.

In 1896 Mrs. Emley was the President of the Bryan Club of this place and an active worker in this organization. She was also one of the organizers and a charter member of the Lady Highlander lodge of Wisner and its chief officer for several years. She was an active worker in the Rebekah lodge and occupied their highest office for sometime, and assisted in the organization of the Wisner Women's Club, was its first President and remained an active worker for many years, being also a member of the first Library Board of Wisner.

On account of her failing health in 1893 she went to Boulder, CO, and remained there three months during the summer, and again in 1895 she spent the summer tenting with her family at Hot Springs, SD. This afforded temporary relief and it was not until seven years ago that her health became so impaired that it was thought advisable to remain in Colorado indefinitely. The greater part of four years she resided in Denver, making her fight for health and life, and finally feeling convinced that the battle was a losing one, she returned home to Wisner, happy to be with her family, and wonderfully sweet, and patient through all the years of unspeakable suffering that remained. Here day after day she was glad to meet the many friends who so generously strove to alleviate her pain and brought her cheer to the last.

Being a great reader, she remained intensely interested in the affairs of her friends of the locality, and of world interest, to the time of her death. It was not until about a month ago that she became bed ridden and she was conscious to the end. She passed quietly away at 6:40 o'clock, August 6, 1915.

Her funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by her pastor, Rev. Guy Birch, who spoke from a text chosen from the 23rd Psalm, which was of her choosing.

The body was laid to rest in the Wisner Cemetery[304].

Mora Wiprud kindly sent the obituary.

08-00821-03 CHARLES DICKERMAN TINGLEY[9] (Naaman[8], Darius[7], Elkanah[6], Thomas[5], Timothy[4], Thomas[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Alford, PA[24] born Jan. 21, 1836 at Harford, PA; died Nov. 13, 1924, cerebral hemorrhage, at Hallstead, PA; married Jan. 18, 1856 by Edward Oram, Esq. at Clifford, PA, Margaret Williams, daughter of William and Rebecca (Williams) Gow, of Harford, PA, born Sep. 5, 1837 at Harford, PA; died Aug. 19, 1916 at Hallstead, PA; both are buried in Brooklyn, PA. He was a farmer, blacksmith and merchant[201].

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tingley, of Hallstead, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary at the home of their grandson E. S. Tingley, Tuesday Jan. 18, 1916.

The day was one to be admired, with twenty five relatives present and a bountiful dinner the event was sociably enjoyed by all. Master Kenneth Tingley, the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tingley, favored us with several songs, which were greatly appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Tingley are well along in years, the former being eighty-one and the latter eighty, but evidently they seem as hale and hearty as ever. Mr. Tingley was born in Harford, Jan. 21, 1836, and with his father, being an old settler was engaged at farming on the tract which they had cleared. On Jan. 18, 1856 he was married to Miss Margaret Gow, also of that place, where they resided until, Nov. 1, 1862, when he was drafted and enlisted in the army, being a private of Co. E, 177th Reg. Pa. Vol. Inf., and served till Aug. 7, 1863, when he was mustered out. They then went to Alford and lived for forty-four years until the D. L. and W. cut-off was built which destroyed their property. They then sold out and bought in Hallstead, where they now reside. They were blessed with three sons, Naaman, who died in infancy;

Tennyson, who died Dec. 31, 1910 and William, who now lives in Washington, NJ. (taken from the old newspaper clipping.)

About middle of July 1863 at Sandy Hook, MD, he had measles and typhoid fever which brought on piles. He was pensioned under Certif. #336840. Pension was increased from time to time as his condition grew worse until Oct. 1, 1924 he was receiving $72 per month. Record states "General disability, his mind is nearly gone, badly crippled and is not capable of caring for himself in any way. Has had regular aid and attendance for past 5 years". A granddaughter, Blanche Titman Tingley, wife of George Washington Tingley, cared for him[131].

A granddaughter, Hattie Owen, has sent the following about her grandfather, Frank Silas Tingley, as told in his own words, taken from an unpublished book which he had written:

"I was born in Susquehanna Co., PA, Clifford Twp. It was a Welsh neighborhood and Dundaf was the nearest trading point. My father built the Welsh church.

"We lived on a farm, and besides his farm work my father built threshing machines and threshed for his neighbors.

"About the time I was 13 years old he sold this place for $2100, and received the pay all in $20 gold pieces, and bought a small place in Wattsville, Longean Co. Father built an addition on one end of the house for a store and postoffice and my mother and I ran the store most of the time.

"Father was a good millwright and had work building or repairing saw mills or grist mills, he got as high as $5.00 per day.

"A few years later, my father traded this place for his father-in-law's farm, Asa Brundage's, in Susquehanna Co., Franklin Twp. It was 130 A. of land, some timber, a good sugar bush, as it was called, about 130 good hard maple trees.

"I loved to dance and hardly ever missed a chance to attend one, and I started keeping company with Hilah Sherwood of Luzerne, PA and on Dec. 31, 1863, we were married in a double ceremony with my sister Juliana and Hilah's brother Albert Sherwood. We were married in Harford by a preacher named Miller.

"When Eva and then May was born, we were living on a farm in Susquehanna Co. near our parents. When May was about to arrive, I sent the hired man for help but they didn't get there in time and I delivered her myself.

"When Mettie, our third girl, was born, we had moved to Franklin Forks and I was working in a sawmill.

"In 1874 we moved to Binghamton, NY where I bought a lot joining my father's and built a house. I got work with Jessie Clark, building a city bell tower. The bell weighed 7600 lbs. and was up 150 ft. high. Mr. Clark laid out the work and I did it. I worked 10 hrs. a day for $1.50 per day and when we started raising the framework, he gave me $2.00 per day as it was more dangerous.

"Nov. 29th, 1875, Hattie Lou, was born there.

"Hilah and I joined the First Baptist Church there and were baptized May 27, 1877. The Pastor was Brother Wright.

"I heard Horace Greeley deliver an address, and in it he said, Young men go West, this country is overpopulated, take government land and make yourself a home. I thought about it day and night and sold my house for $600.

"But before this on Nov. 10, 1878, there came our fifth little girl, Estella Agnes.

"The following Feb. I went on an inspection trip to Lincoln, NE and I made up my mind to settle in Western Kansas. I got tickets via Kansas City and Michigan and went back after Hilah and the children. We left Binghamton March 19, 1879."

Then from the Dighton Herald of Jan. 15, 1958, there is an interesting story as told by our Frank Silas Tingley which he wrote in his own hand and dated the beginning March 8 and the ending March 27, 1922. It was sent by his daughter, Mrs. Estella Tingley Haney, Hattie Owen's mother, to the Dighton Herald, Lane County, KS, weekly paper. In June of 1969 Barbara Tingley of Melrose, New Mexico, sent a copy to the compiler for publication in our book and the Dighton Herald has kindly granted permission for it to be included here as well as some stories on two storms, later, if they can be located.

"In 1879 I left Binghamton, New York, with six hundred dollars and my family consisting of my wife, Hilah, and five children. I had lived in Binghamton for 23½ years.

"During the fall of 1879, I planned and built a good sod house, as the one we were living in would not do for winter. After getting some hackberry poles for roof, ridge pole and forks, I plowed sod about three inches thick and twelve inches wide, used spade to cut in two foot lengths to make the wall two feet thick. I built a room 14 by 24 feet, inside measurements. We found native lime in the bluff along the creek and sand to plaster the inside walls making it very nice and liveable.

"We needed a well of water and I went to work digging. I went down fifty-five feet in five days, got good water and lots of it. I used a spade all the way down.

"I did all the team work that I could find to do. In the fall there were many of the settlers who left for the east to winter, and on the last day of December was our anniversary and we invited Mr. Bradstreet and wife who had come from Pennsylvania; Ed Bell and wife who came from Missouri; E. Davison and wife who came from Pennsylvania; Hallet and wife from Iowa; and Charles Higday and wife who came from central Kansas. They were with us all day and evening. We had an enjoyable time. Hilah got us up a very good dinner. Not one of them belonged to a church, and as they were all seated at the table before I sat down, I gave them a short talk. I told them it had been our custom in the East on the last day of the year to give a dinner to our friends and relatives, that today we were pleased to have them with us, that a common cause brought us together to make a home in a new country. Then I asked God to bless us all and keep us true and faithful to the end of life. It is 1922 now and I was back there last year and Mr. Bradstreet is the only one now living that was with us on December 31, 1879.

"Our mourning for our daughter Hattie (in 1975, Hattie Owen says 'Hattie died from worm spasms, when about 3½ years old. She was buried out on the prairie with a marker on her grave, but the marker disappeared), who left a spot never to be filled, was somewhat alleviated in 1881 when on September 19 Alice Leacade was born. We had to be our own doctor, as there were none nearer than 32 miles. I have often thought of the first two winters we had there -- mild weather, just what we needed.

"In 1882, I went to Harvey County with Clark Holton to his father's farm to harvest. I worked through harvest with my team and header barge, worked 20 days at that, then 20 days plowing ground for seeding in the fall. Then I loaded my wagon with flour and other supplies that we needed and left for home in Lane County about 200 miles away. Charles Higday was with us the ten days going back. I was glad to get back home with wife and children. Today as I look back through the mist of 35 years or more, I can say truthfully those were the happiest days of my life. There was no work that was too hard for me to do, to take care of the best children that ever lived.

"The Texas cattle trail had been on the east side of Lane County and was now moved to half mile east of our claim. During July and August from one to four thousand head were driven through nearly every day, going to Nebraska to be fed and finished for market. As the country became settled up, this trail was discontinued.

"In the winter of 1883, I did some work with my team, and also some carpentry. There were a few sod buildings put up in Dighton. We had got mail service by then. I made letter boxes for the post office for I was the only one who had any carpenter tools at that time, and was called upon to use them often. On June 23, 1883, Mo Davison, Mr. McLelland, Clark Holton and I started for Harvey County to harvest again. Clark wanted Eva to go with us to help his mother and sister in the kitchen and dining room. I ran one header and Clark the other one for 23 days. Then for ten days we plowed, followed by threshing and I hauled the grain to the granary from the machine. I got two dollars per day, board and horse feed, and one dollar twenty-five cents per acre for plowing. Again, we loaded our wagons with necessities and started for home. Mr. Holton made me a proposition of getting 200 head of sheep for five years. I was to give him half the wool or half what the wool sold for. That fall we met at Larned on the Santa Fe railroad and Jake Bradstreet helped me drive 200 ewes and four wool bucks. I had built a good corral before leaving, and had put up much cane and corn fodder for feed. I wintered them in fine shape, and got 70 percent increase in spring of '84.

"On May 23, 1884, our seventh daughter was born. We named her Almira Josephine and at the present is preaching at Ashland, Oregon and is doing fine. I made arrangements with the Bradstreet brothers to take my sheep in with theirs during the summer, while I went to harvest for Mr. Holton. He cut 12,000 bushels of grain that summer, the best wheat he ever raised. I can say he was the best man I ever worked for. On arriving home, I found the crops a perfect failure. It did not take long for me to decide what to do. I would pass up the preemption and take homestead, as I had looked the country over. I went three miles northwest on the middle branch Walnut Creek where there was lots of blue stem grass. I got a mowing machine and put up hay enough for all my stock, built sod house, sod barn, corral for the sheep and got moved over there in thirty-five days after getting back from Newton.

"In 1885 and 1886 there was a rush of people coming in looking for land. In 1886, the county of Lane was organized and officers elected. Then the little town of Dighton began to grow. I got a young man to herd my sheep, and I got in the swim. A Mr. Smith and I joined forces, contracting to build a town. We worked together about one and a half years, then he left and I worked on for about six months. I made good money doing this work. My last job was building the Christian Church. Then I had to go back and take care of my farm which was three miles north east of Dighton.

"October 24, 1887, a son, Melvern Silas, was born to us. In 1888, I was elected trustee of Dighton township and in 1889, I was elected county commissioner for three years. About this time, my lease on the sheep had expired, and I turned them over to Mr. Holton, and we had free range, I went into the cattle business. In 1901, I shipped a car load of cattle to Kansas City, and then went to Binghamton on a three week visit.

"In 1902, crops in Western Kansas were nearly a total failure. As a rule, we did not get a good crop once in three years, and my ability to work was lagging and with no chance to hire help when it was needful, I began to see that I had given the best part of my life to Lane County and the good people there. I do not believe better people ever settled anywhere.

"In January, 1886, we had the worst blizzard of all. During one of our blizzards, a Mr. Wolf and daughter were out in the storm, and were frozen to death. I made their coffins. It was the most sad sight I ever saw. I made about 15 coffins for those who had died before an undertaker came to take up that business. I was glad when a dentist came to take up that work, as I had tools for taking teeth out, and was called upon quite often, though I did not like the work, I was always glad I could help others in time of need. I never made any charge for that work, but most would give something to the children. I had worked 23 years faithfully, and I had done my part in settling up about the last U.S. land on the frontier. I never saw the time I was sorry that I had settled in Lane County.

"In 1902, I sold my place for $3,000, had an auction sale in August that brought in over $2,000 and I sold the timber claim for $1,000. Alice, Melvern and I came to Oregon soon after the sale and I went in business with Will. Hilah and Josie came in January. We rented a house and moved in. By this time, the older girls were married and had homes of their own.

Cora's obituary states: "Yesterday afternoon occurred the last sad rites over the remains of the lamented Mrs. Cora Geary at the residence on Maple Avenue. They were conducted by the Rev. William Edgar of Providence, who formerly resided in this city. He spoke of the happy death of the deceased, who while on her death bed sang the 23rd psalm and 'Go Bury Thy Sorrow'. They were also sung at the funeral services, as were several other of her favorite pieces. The funeral was largely attended, as Mrs. Geary had a large circle of friends. Those who acted as pallbearers were Frank Stephens, Evan Tucker, Elmer Brokenshire, L. L. Loveland, D. L. Crane and Philip Felt."

First part of George's obituary was torn with pieces missing but it can be made out that he was employed as a carpenter for a contractor. "He died last night after a very brief illness. On Sunday he was taken down with a sickness that was soon pronounced scarlet fever and though everything was done for him that could be he failed rapidly until the end some two days later. He was an exemplary young man and an unusually good workman. By his death is left a young widow, Cora, daughter of Russell Carpenter, of this city whom he married three years ago and a little son. Mr. Geary's parents are living and reside at Hawley where there are also three brothers.

"The fatal sickness having been of a contagious nature, the funeral will be private and will be held at the house on South Church Street tomorrow at one o'clock p.m. Interment in Maplewood Cemetery."

The following "WHAT'S IN A NAME" was written by Charles A. Tiffany, 4211 Baltimore Ave., Philadelphia, PA and sent to the compiler by Helen Lovett.

"The family name of Tiffany has a romantic background which is unique in itself. Unlike a number of family names, it has not been derived from incidents of trades of early ancestors. Neither has it been compounded or pieced from other names.

"Early notes show that it is not an English name but came to England in the year 1066 with William the Conqueror and was borne by warriors of Norman French parentage. The form at that time was THEOPHAINE and later became Anglicized and spelled T-I-F-F-A-N-Y. The name Tiffin is another form of the same group or family name. Theophaine is not of pure French origin. It was possibly Greek in character and was used to designate the descendants of one Theophaine, a woman in all probability.

"The earliest reference to the name as it is now known is contained in a short verse of the Middle Ages which read:

"William De Courney,
Came from Brittany,
With his wife Tiffany,
With her maid Margasse,
And his dog Hardigrasse."

"Would-be genealogists jump at wild conclusions as to the meaning of a name. In the case of Tiffany it has been erroneously stated that the name comes from Tiffin or Tiffan, a light silk, and consequently a seller of tiffin took on the name of his business. In the English dictionary the word 'tiffany' means a thin, gossamer-type of silk; however, the family name preceded the term by several hundred years. The name Tiffany cannot be associated with silk selling, due to the fact that early records disclose no members of the family as being textile vendors.

"It has been impossible to trace the exact origin of the name. In Italy today the name appears as Tifani and in Brittany, France, as Tiefaine. Perhaps an early member of the group was a soldier of fortune and cared little in regard to a definite nationality.

"From previous research and study it has been found that the early Tiffanys in England were freemen, landowners and warriors. They were never serfs, tradesmen or mercenaries, and received special recognizance from their king. This is further borne out by the family crest, which shows a shield, a knight's helmet and plumes, attesting that one of the male line was knighted for service to his sovereign. Upon ascending to knighthood the favored one became the recipient of court standing and a bounty from his king.

"Another twist of self-styled genealogists is to reduce absolute facts to doubtful or inconsequential statements. In this respect one writer hints that a member of this family was a Crusader and fought in the Holy Land in order to wrest the Holy Sepulchre from the hands of the Barbarians. This fact is absolute and cannot be sidetracked by any attempt to reduce their biased opinions to writing.

"There is a certain pride in ancestry akin to patriotism. Family history has value which cannot be said in terms of dollars and cents. The value lies in bringing an unsullied record to the attention of the younger generation so that they may mould their lives accordingly, doing justice to previous standard-bearers.

"In regard to the crest or family seal, as previously stated the knight's helmet represents a greyhound with a deer foot in his mouth. This is peculiar as the greyhound never hunted the stag, and authorities cannot give any explanation why it should be there. The three griffin signify sight and, taking all in all, a close connection with nobility. The motto Patria Fidelis means faithful to country and further bears out the statement that our ancestors were champions of the crown. The crest has very appropriate and beautiful colors which have been remarked upon by various writers.

"Great men have borne this name both abroad and in the New World. At one time a Tiffany was Lord Mayor of London and on this side, one was an eminent jurist who wrote books of law which today are supreme in their field.

"A number of years ago Charles L. Tiffany, the founder of Tiffany & Co., caused to be gathered together all details concerning the history of this family. Through his endeavors the crest was located, and he designated Nelson Otis Tiffany to correlate the facts in book form, which was puhlished under the title of Tiffanys of America. The publishers were Matthews-Northrup Co., of Buffalo, N. Y.

"The generosity of Charles L. Tiffany cannot be overlooked as he brought together in one volume a history of value to all who bear the name of Tiffany. It may be well to state that he was a man of exceptional ability and foresight, which needs no other proof than the fact that, with a few hundred dollars, he laid the foundation of a business which today enjoys international prestige and has no close rival.

"The information contained in this paper has been gleaned from Nelson Otis Tiffany's book, Tiffanys of America, another volume, Tiffanys of Europe and from several genealogical sketches. The Library of Congress, Washington, D. C., has these books, which have been supplemented by experts pertaining to members of the family.

"Family reunions should have a two-fold purpose: 1) To maintain a close relationship with all in the group; 2) To preserve a record of each union and the descendants from the same. We can go still further. At each annual gathering let some capable member refresh the minds of all the rest with the facts concerning the past glory of this family. Let us, therefore, charge our offspring with the responsibility of keeping our name clean as have our ancestors over a period of several centuries.

"Everyone in this group has a right to be proud. Our name and record cannot be erased from the minds of men. In our veins flows the blood of the Norman Conquerors, the freemen, the Crusader and, on this side, the Nine Partners, who were all champions of the cause of Liberty, having served in the American Revolution."

He applied for pension, application #371484. He served as private in Captain Sumner Barstow's Co. C, 23d Regt. N. Y. Inf. Vol., having enlisted Mar. 15, 1862 and was discharged at York, PA Mar. 28, 1863 on disability.

In his pension file the following history was found signed by an examining surgeon:

"He married a woman in N. Y. State by whom he had two children and then deserted and came to Kansas and married a widow, by whom he had three children and she died. He then returns to N. Y. and gets the first wife and brings her here to his second family of children and they live together until she bears him another child and she died, then in about 3 or 4 months he married a young woman to whom he deeded all his real estate before he was married to her and after living with her 7 or 8 months he deserted her and his whole family and went to parts unknown. And about a month ago (history report is dated Mar. 7, 1882) a man came here who knew him and said he saw him in Falls City, NE and that he was living with another woman there. His son (a young man) went up there as soon as he could arrange to do so and found the report to be true, that he had married a widow there and that the very next morning after seeing the man above mentioned, he had skipped out leaving the widow to mourn the loss of several hundred dollars. Before deeding his property to wife No. 3, he had mortgaged his farm and several pieces of real estate about all they would bear and his children by the first two wives are dependent on strangers for support."

"P. S. Wife No. 3 has a daughter by him born after desertion."

It was reported that he showed up next at Holden, Johnson Co., MO but did not appear for a physical[131].

"Ancestral History of Erwin Dewain Tiffany" as supplied by Helen Lovett:

"The Family Motto: 'Hats off! to the past.
Coats off! for the future.'

"As quoted and compiled from Tiffanys in America by Nelson Otis Tiffany.

EUROPEAN DESCENT

"The exact origin of the Tiffany family is difficult to ascertain. The name and the family may have originated in Italy or France, but it is from some of the English Tiffanys that the Americans of that name are descended. Squire Humphrey Tiffany probably came from Yorkshire. The Irish Tiffanys were an overflow from England, and from there came to America. As far as has been ascertained, it is thought that none of the American Tiffanys originated in Italy, France, or any other continental country. The name exists in Italy and France; in Brittany and Normandy, it is frequently found. There are also many Tiffanys in England and Ireland.

"The first mention of the name Tiffany in England is found in Longstaffe's Richmonshire, Its Ancient Lords and Edifices, pages 142 and 143:

'William de Conningsby
Came out of Brittany
With his wife Tiffany
And his maid Manfrass
And his dog Hardigrass.'

"In English Surnames, Their Sources and Significations, by Charles W. Bardsley, M.A., second edition, published in London in 1875, on pages 71 and 72, appears the following:

"'The Normans liked their women to be however modest, none the less light-hearted, gay and spirited, and in the synonyms of mirth, gladness, and sportiveness, they would delight in fixing up their newly-born children that which they hoped would be in the future the index of the real character. Theophania (Greek word) was anything but popular, but its length made it unavoidable that it should be mutilated or put in an abbreviated or nick-name form, and thus has arisen our Tiffany, whence, of course, the surname of today.'

"Considerable space is devoted in some books on English surnames to proving that the name Tiffany was taken from Epiphany, with reference to the feast of Epiphany, the church festival, also called Twelfth Day, concluding the Christmas holidays. The name, as applied to a silk, would thus mean Epiphany silk, that is, holiday silk, and tiffanies is given in some English books as meaning a kind of thin silk gauze.

"In tracing the origin of the name through early English history and literature, the writer has come across many interesting uses of the word. Boyle, on 'Colors,' gave it as an equivalent for taffeta, a fine smooth, silken stuff, remarkably glossy. The word is used in so many different senses that it is difficult, if not impossible, to ascertain in what manner it gradually developed into the English surname now borne by thousands in this country and Europe.

PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS.

"It is thought best to trace the history of the Tiffanys from their earliest known origin in England. The American branch is made up of English, Irish and Scotch. The family has inherited to a marked degree the characteristics of those three nationalities. The Tiffanys are, as a rule, physically strong, from medium to large stature, many being over six feet in height. They do not tend to take on a super-abundance of flesh, are erect in carriage, and have large heads, the upper brain developed in excess of the base.

"The head is well carried, the chest deep, the lungs large and full, the body and limbs round, well knit, closely jointed. The shoulders are inclined to droop, with the arms carried close to the body. Skin and hair are fine in texture, nails are thin, giving evidence of a sensitive and somewhat nervous organization. As to facial features, the nose is straight or slightly arched, nostrils large, and the line from the nostril to the corner of the mouth is sharply defined. The complexion is usually dark, but not swarthy, the eyes are brown, dark blue, or gray. Frankly the most marked physical characteristic of the Tiffanys is the expression of the eye. The Tiffany eye is the first feature to attract the attention of a close observer. It is a Tiffany mark.

"As a race, the Tiffanys are long-lived, retaining their mental faculties unimpaired to a good old age. Palmer C. Tiffany, who died in July, 1900, was over ninety at the time of his death, and less than a year before that event he contributed an interesting series of articles to one of the Mount Pleasant, Iowa, papers, giving an account of the pioneer settlement of Iowa. These articles were vigorous, showing an extraordinary memory and a familiar acquaintance with the history of this western state. Nelson Arnold Tiffany, father of Nelson Otis Tiffany, when in his eighty-second year, was the youngest of five brothers and sisters in his family living at that time, two of whom died after passing ninety-three. Charles Lewis Tiffany, founder of the famous house of Tiffany & Co., although in his ninetieth year at this writing (1901) goes regularly to his business daily, giving it his close attention. He has remarkable vision and is able to read with the naked eye as well as can most of his employees with the use of glasses.

AMERICAN DESCENT

"Six generations of Tiffanys in the direct ancestry of Erwin Dewain Tiffany have lived in America. They are in a direct line of descent, from the first to come to America down to the father of Erwin Dewain Tiffany, as follows:

1. Humphrey
2. James Tiffany
3. John Tiffany
4. Thomas Tiffany (I)
5. Thomas Tiffany (II)
6. Milton Tiffany

HUMPHREY TIFFANY

"Although the most diligent search has been made, both through the records of this country and of Europe, it has been impossible to ascertain the exact date at which the original Tiffany came to America. The lists of emigrants to America have been carefully studied; also other records, including many of the genealogies published in this country and across the water. Several names that might be construed to mean Tiffany appear, but as there is so much doubt concerning them, they have not been used in the compilation of data for this work.

"The earliest Tiffany mentioned in colonial history is Squire Humphrey Tiffany, who is undoubtedly the ancestor of the majority of the Tiffanys in America. Squire Humphrey Tiffany probably went to Massachusetts Bay about the year 1660. Authentic records show that the town of Rehoboth, Mass., was incorporated in 1645 and, as originally incorporated, contained the present towns of Seekonk, Rehoboth, Attleboro, parts of Swansea, Massachusetts, and Pawtucket, Rhode Island. In the records of the town of ancient Rehoboth, Bayliss' History of New Plymouth, Volume I, page 209, under date of January 22, 1663, states: 'Humphrey Tiffany permitted to be a sojourner and to buy or hire.' At this date, therefore, Humphrey Tiffany became a citizen of the town. In Savage's Genealogical History of New England Families Who Came to America before 1692, on page 300, Volume IV, under the heading of Tiffany, appears the following:

"'Tiffany, Humphrey, Rehoboth, 1663 b.w. Elizabeth, had Sarah, b. sixth July, 1683, was I think inhab. of Dover for some time, but k. 15 July 1685, on the journey betw. Swansey and Boston, by a stroke of lightning.'

"Savage is mistaken about Humphrey having lived in Dover, New Hampshire. Thorough search of Dover records and all other sources of information concerning the county of Rockingham, in which Dover lies, fails to reveal that any member of the Tiffany family lived in Dover.

"What is now Swansea, Mass., was part of the original town of Rehoboth. In the Plymouth Colony Records, among the Swansea items appears the following:

"'Sarah, the daughter of Humphrey Tiffany and Elizabeth, his wife, was born sixth of July 1683.'

"This shows that two years before Humphrey's death he was living in Swansea, Mass., and not in Dover, N. H. Further proof that he was a resident of Swansea at the time of his death is given on page 88, Volume V, fifth series, Publications of the Massachusetts Historical Society, in the Diary of Samuel Sewell, as follows:

"'Wednesday, P.M., July 15, 1685. Very dark and great thunder and lightning. One Humphrey Tiffany and Frances Low, daughter of Antony Low, are slain with the lightning and thunder about a mile or a mile and a half beyond Billinges Farm, the horse also slain, that they rode on, and another Horse in Company slain and his rider who held the garment of the Maid to steady it at the time the stroke, a coat or cloak, stounded but not killed. Were coming to Boston. Antony Low being in Town the sad Bill was put up with (regards) of that solemn judgment of God; Fast-day Forenoon, July 15, 1685, 2 persons 2 horses.'

"This gives the date of Humphrey Tiffany's death in a satisfactory manner and shows that he was on his way from the direction of Swansea toward Boston at the time he was killed.

"Another record states that Humphrey Tiffany was killed by lightning between Swansea and Boston and that for a long time a metal tablet was affixed to a large tree beneath which he sought shelter during the storm and was killed. The word tree was used to rhyme with Tiffany in the inscription on the tablet, setting forth the incident in which Humphrey Tiffany and his companion were killed. The inscription concluded with the following:

"'Squire Humphrey Tiffany And Mistress Low,
By a stroke of lightning
Into Eternity did go.'

"Further proof of his residence is found on pages 51 to 54, Plymouth Colony Records, Volume IV, also in the Court Orders contained in Volume VI, in which the following appears:

"'Atta General Court of this_____holden att plimouth Oct. 27, 1685. Before Thomas Hinckley, Esq., Govern and others. Administration is granted by this court to Elizabeth, the relict of Humphrey Tiffany, deceased, on all the goods and chattels of sd. Tiffany, she bringing in a true inventory thereof, and giving bond with two sufficient sureties for her administring according to law. Major John Walley is ordered by the Court to give ye oath to the inventory of sd. Tiffany, and to deliver her the letter of administration granted by the Court, she having given in bond as above said.'

"Mistress Elizabeth Tiffany qualified before the General Court as executrix of her husband's estate. From the time Humphrey Tiffany is first heard of, he is found to be a resident of the Plymouth Colony of Massachusetts Bay, and especially of that part known as Swansea, so named because it was originally settled by emigrants from the town of Swansea in Wales.

"Records of the present town of Swansea give the names of Squire Humphrey Tiffany's children and some of his grandchildren. In the town book appears the following:

"'Hezekiah, the son of Humphrey Tiffanee and of Elizabeth his wife was drowned in Swanzey River on the 4th of December near night Anno 1685.' This was the same year in which Humphrey Tiffany was killed.

"The children of whom there is actual proof are the following: James; Thomas; Ebenezer; Consider; Sarah, b. July 6, 1683; Hezekiah, d. December 4, 1685. There were possibly other children, but there is no positive proof."

JAMES TIFFANY

"Son of Squire Humphrey Tiffany and Elizabeth; married, first, Bethia _____; she died, Attleboro, Mass., Feb. 27, 1711; married, second, Elizabeth _____; she survived him and was executor of his will; March 16, 1734, she was married to Andrew Grover of Norton, Mass. James Tiffany had 17 children, 13 by his first wife.

"For a short time after his first marriage, James lived in Swansea, Mass.; but about 1690 he moved into Attleboro and there secured the farm on which he built the old house that stood until a few years ago and in which many generations of Tiffanys were born and died. The exact date of James Tiffany's death is not known; but it was between June 28, 1732, when he made his will, and July 26, of the same year, when it was probated. Following is a copy of the will:

"'In the name of God Amen; the twenty-eighth day of June 1732. I James Tiffany of the town of Attleborough in the county of Bristol in his Majesties province of the Massachusetts Bay; being very sick and weak in body but of perfect mind and memory thanks to be given to God therefor, calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to dye; do make and ordain this my last will and Testament.

"'That is to say principally and first of all I give and Recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent 'Christian Burial' at the discretion of my executors; Nothing doubting but at the General Resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of god.

"'And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased god to bless me in this life, I give, demise, and dispose in the following manner and form.

"'Imprimis: I give and bequeath to Elizabeth my dearly beloved wife, according as the laws of our province hath provided, that is to say the income of the third part of my estate: together with the use of any Room in my dwelling house.

"'And I do constitute make and ordain Elizabeth my dearly beloved wife, together with my son John Tifinye both jointly to be executrix and executor of this my last will and Testament.

"'Item. I give to my well beloved son Joseph Tifynie ten shillings.

"'Item. I give to my well beloved Son James Tifinie the sum of ten shillings.

"'Item. I give unto my well beloved son Samuel Tifinie the sum of ten shillings.:

"'Item. I give unto my daughter Elizabeth's children the sum of five pound six shillings and eight pence.

"'Item. I give unto my well beloved daughter 'Lidia' the sum of three pounds.

"'Item. I give unto my well beloved daughter Bathsheba the sum of five pounds.

"'Item. I do hereby give unto my well beloved sons John Tifinye and Noah Tifinye all my estate for quantity and quality for them to enjoy forever.

"'Item. I give unto my daughter Keziah and Alethea the sum of thirty pounds each of them, obliging my two younger sons to pay out all their Legacy att the term of years when my youngest son is three and twenty years old.

"'I do hereby disallow revoke and disannull all and every other former testaments wills and Legacies and bequests exetors by me in any ways before named willed and bequeathed. "Note: The foregoing copy of the will of James Tiffany is of interest because it shows what was probably the custom prevailing at that time as to the distribution of property among the sons and daughters of a family. It is also interesting to note the peculiarities of spelling capitalization, etc., which we must attribute to the ignorance of the country lawyer or official who drew up the will. He was probably a fair representative of his class at that time."

The Story of the Tingley Heirloom as supplied by Fannie Tingley:

"'OAK LEAF' Wool Bedspread

"Charles Tingley, one might even say 'The Charles Tingley,' sixth son of Elkanah Tingley, was one of the most illustrious men of the Tingley family. He was notably public spirited, and was also an upstanding family man.

"He lost his only daughter, Jane Lobeda, by death in her early womanhood, which was a heavy blow to him, but he did not allow his grief to cloud his appreciation of his five splendid sons, Warren Mason, Jackson, Norman, Urbane and Homer.

"As each son matured and started out on the Sea of Life, Charles bought and presented to that son a fine farm, taking care to see that there was a distance of at least five miles between any two of the farms -- ; 'to insure that amicable relations should prevail among the families'.

"When the sons were grown and settled in their own homes, Charles visited a famous weaver, one Joseph Turnbaugh, of Sugarloaf, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, and placed an order for five all-wool, woven bedspreads, all of one design and color scheme.

"The design is chiefly of large, single oak leaves radiating from a large circle, with an eight-pointed star in the center, and the words 'oak leaf' between each two of the oak leaves. Also there is a fairly large, single stylized flower interspersed between other parts of the design. The border is about eight inches wide and consists of sleek young eagles standing with wings folded, rotated with sprays of leaves and roses. The spread is finished with a 3 ½ inch wool fringe. The color scheme is red, navy and green on a white background.

"On the lower corners are two plaques woven in, having this wording:

"Made by
Joseph
Turnbaugh
Sugarloaf
Luzerne Co.
for
(Blank Space -- name omitted)
Penn. 1852'

"Charles gave these five spreads to his five sons with the express purpose that each spread was to descend to the oldest son of each family from generation to generation.

"At the time of the TINGLEYS-UNITED Reunion at Harford, PA, in 1970, I, Fannie B. Tingley, was unable to locate anyone who had one of these spreads, although one person remembered one back in his childhood, which mysteriously disappeared during the settling up of an estate.

"The spread which is the subject of this story was given by Charles to his son Jackson. Jackson's younger son, Nelson, took his bride, Emma Huff Tingley, to Jackson's farm home to live for a time. Jackson, being a cripple in his later years, was appreciative of the tender care given him by Emma. When Jackson's son Melvin married, Nelson and Emma left the farm in deference to the older son. But after Jackson passed away and the two sons were settling up the estate, Melvin gave this spread to Nelson, telling him that 'Father wanted Emma to have the Oak-Leaf spread.' It goes without saying that Emma guarded it tenderly.

"William Earl Tingley was next in line of succession to possess the spread, followed by his son, William Nelson Tingley, who very graciously allowed his Aunt Fannie Tingley, sister of William Earl, to keep the spread in her possession for a time, as she was very fond of it -- first sentimentally as a family heirloom, and then as to its value as an Antique.

"With her advancing years, Aunt Fannie felt that to be sure of the spread getting to the rightful owner, she should return it, which she now does with grateful thanks for the joy it has meant to her.

"Since Melvin Tingley had no sons, the spread would have rightfully descended to William Earl Tingley, then to William Nelson, whose son, Jackson Michael Tingley, will one day inherit the spread. Incidentally Jackson Michael is the only Tingley boy in the Jackson Tingley line." signed by Fannie Tingley at Binghamton, N. Y. April 15, 1971.

Geo. Forsyth at Susquehanna, PA, Sarah Frances, daughter of Thomas and Cornelia (Stevens) Van Buskirk, of Orange Co., NY, born Jan. 12, 1863 at Searsville, Orange Co., NY; died Feb. 20, 1928 at New Milford, PA; married second Mar. 2, 1929 at New Milford, PA, Anna E., daughter of Henry and Fannie Osborne (Mead) Mac Connell, of Harford Twp., PA, born at Harford Twp., PA; died , 1947 at New Milford, PA, buried in Binghamton, NY.

William H. Tingley, a charter director, was the first and only president of the Grange National Bank at New Milford, PA from the time of organization (1907) until his death (1935). He was a lifelong resident of the New Milford area (75 years) serving in Civic, Local and County capacities, school director, tax collector, secretary New Milford Grange 35 years; several years on the republican executive county committee; chairman of the Board Susquehanna County Commissioners two terms (1909-1916).

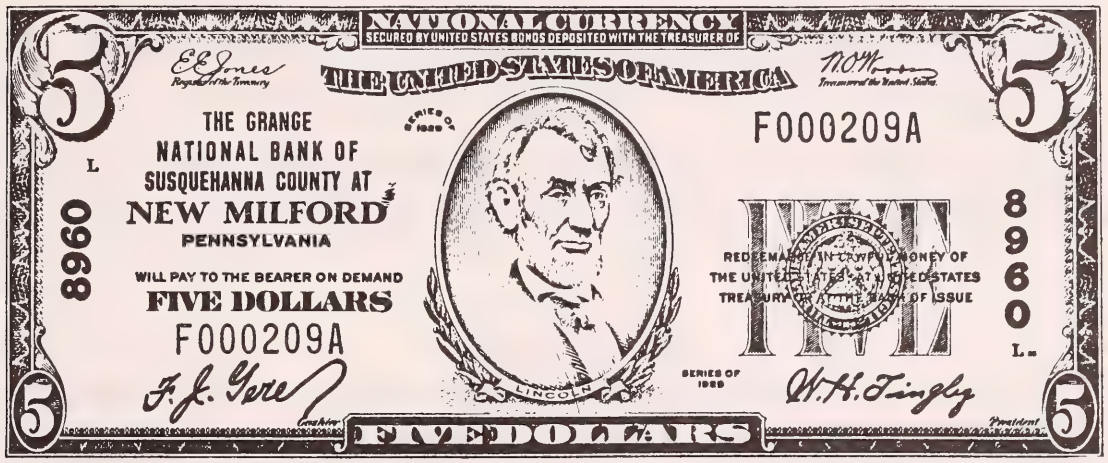
His son, Glenn E. Tingley, is the donor of this replica photostat and the data given here:

E.E. Jones, Harford, PA, registrar of the treasury under President Herbert Hoover.

W.C. Woodin, summer residence at Montrose, PA, treasurer of the United States under President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

F.J. Gere, cashier of the Grange National Bank at New Milford, PA (1907-1951).

W.H. Tingley, president of the Grange National Bank at New Milford, PA (1901-1935).



Park M. Horton, M.D. was personal physician to these men in the 1930's and 1940's.

Photostat of this five dollar bill is an exact replica of the bill carried by Doctor Horton for many years in memory of these men.

In the late nineteen sixties when Dr. Horton was representing the A.M.A. in Washington, D.C. his wallet with that bill was stolen from the pocket of his trousers hanging in the closet of the hotel room, while the doctor was sleeping.

The above is, as related by him soon after his return. He had shown it to me several times previously and we would reminisce about it and general banking.

Dr. Horton was also a former director and Vice President of this bank, truly a 'family doctor' of high esteem for 39 years to his demise, May 24, 1972.

The personal signatures of the first four men mentioned above appear on this replica photostat of that five dollar bill.

Edward E. Jones, native, businessman and resident of Harford, PA, represented Susquehanna County in both Houses of Pennsylvania Legislature for several years, to follow national prominence in the Hoover Administration, in Washington, D. C.

Frank J. Gere was a charter director, the first cashier, then president and later chairman of the board from the organization (1907) until his death (1951) forty-four years, a man of high moral standards and unique character.

"In 1941 Narola Rivenburg published a book, The Star of the Naga Hills, made up of letters from Rev. Sidney and Hattie Rivenburg, Pioneer Missionaries in Assam, 1883-1923."

Edith Jones has supplied the information for this record saying "Much of my information was from this book." In some cases she sent copies of pages from the book and they are being included in this record.

First, "Narola was unmarried, had no own brothers or sisters. After Hattie died, Dr. Sidney remarried, Dec. 28, 1910, second wife Helen Protzman. Their first child, Henry, was born in 1912. Later two more children, Varina and Sydney Helen were born.

"Narola was very close to Bruce (her cousin and my husband) and his family, although she died before we were married. I do not remember hearing much about the half brother and sisters, and would have no idea if they are living and where.

"Yesterday, Sunday I made a trip to Clifford, PA Cemetery, sure that I could find the grave of Dr. Sidney and Narola and get the dates of their deaths. This is a large cemetery, and after considerable searching, and finding many other Rivenburgs, decided they were not buried there. (Also I nearly froze, as we had a rotten day yesterday).

"After I got home and did some phoning, I learned that the old part of the cemetery is in back, across a creek, which means driving up a side street to get to it."

She went back and found the dates given above to make their record more complete. We are very grateful to her for her help.

Some pages from the book, The Star of Naga Hills follow:

From p. 22: "...On October 10th, just a month after his ordination, Sidney brought his little brother Romeyn and Elder Grow to my sister's home, where we were married at five o'clock in the afternoon. We took the 7:30 train for Scranton to attend the Farewell meetings. I was forced to sit on the platform, and, after meeting, to shake hands with everyone. So many said to me, 'You look so young, how can your mother let you go?'.

LONDON, October 27

"Poor Mother! She writes: 'If you sailed Saturday, as you expected, you must be very far away from me when you read this--how far I dare not stop to think. I hope it is for the best. If you are happy, I shall try to be reconciled. It seems to me that I would give all I have in the world to know just where you are and how you feel in mind and body. I think you have a good husband. I hope you will be a good wife, but you are both untried. You must not expect it all to be sunshine. Be happy in each other and in the work you have chosen. May God bless and prosper you.' Is that not a brave letter from my widowed mother? I know my sister will take good care of her, but I cannot think of her sad face without tears. I do wonder if I should have left her!

Write soon, Hattie."

FIRST FRUITS

1892-1894 First Furlough

"FIVE years and not a single convert for the Kohima Baptist Church. No, the years had not been wasted, for Sidney had gained a working knowledge of his third Indian language and translated Matthew, John and Acts from the Greek into the Angami language.

"Broken in health and utterly discouraged, the Rivenburgs returned to America, where Mr. Rivenburg studied medicine, graduating from the Baltimore Medical College in 1894 and passing his Pennsylvania State Board examinations in the summer of that same year. He was thus enabled to return to India a fully qualified physician. Now at last his pluck and courage began to bear fruit. He could see God's plan like lilies unfold, pure and white.

We must not tear the close-shut leaves apart.
Time will reveal their hidden cups of gold..

--From the poem Sometime, by Mary Riley Smith.

"The following letters show how this happened.

SIDNEY

Kohima, Assam, 1895

"DEAR FATHER AND MOTHER:

"The past three years have gone so rapidly that I can hardly realize that our first furlough (February, 1892, to September, 1894) is a thing of the past. No, I hope that the lessons learned in Baltimore Medical College are not so far past as not to be usable here where most needed as we start a new chapter in our work in Assam. It was, and still is, a matter of deep regret that Hattie could not have taken the course with me, but her place seemed to be with our child. When my eyes gave out with the heavy reading necessary to graduation, I never could have finished the course if Hattie had not read aloud and drilled me on the material. As it is, she is a splendid assistant when I need help in operations and in nursing some particularly difficult case.

"Upon reaching India, our poor oxen had a terrible time getting the carts through the mud up the cart road to Kohima. The bullocks went into mire up to their middles. They would get discouraged and refuse to pull. Whereupon the drivers would twist their tails, sometimes twisting them off. I strained my back, pulling and hauling carts. Hattie's sympathies for the bullocks would overcome her, so that a bad time was had by all..."

(From pages 142 & 143)

"...They had called several younger doctors in nearby towns, all of whom refused the call because of the storm. Finally, in desperation, the family called Dr. Rivenburg. After inquiring the exact location of the home (some 10 miles or so away), this white-haired old man of seventy replied, 'I'll come if I can, but in the meantime, do thus and so.' Hours later, he appeared on the back of an old gray mare wallowing through the drifts, and blue with the cold. He had had some difficulty borrowing the horse, not only because the owner had not wanted to lose a faithful horse, but because he feared for the safety of his beloved physician.

"Just a month before Dr. Rivenburg died, an aged patient flatly refused to call another doctor, and so two sons came after 'the grand old man' whom they found so weak that he could barely walk across the floor. The two young men carried him to their car and then into their own home to the bedside of their father. Such is the stuff of which pioneer missionaries are made!

"It must have been of considerable satisfaction to Dr. Rivenburg to have lived to see his four children able to care for themselves. Narola had received her Ph.D. degree from Columbia University and was teaching in the Baptist Institute for Christian Workers. Henry had graduated from Albany State College and was employed in the laboratory of the Winthrop Drug Company. He had married and had three fine sons. Varina had graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University and was in training to be a nurse. Sydney Helen was in high school.

"In 1933, the Clifford Baptist Church celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination of Sidney Rivenburg to the Christian Ministry in 1833. Friends and relatives from far and near gathered to express their love and respect for this 'Christian', who had so faithfully carried the great message of the cross to the far parts of the earth as well as exemplified the Christian Way of Life in their midst.

"In March, 1936, during the severe Pennsylvania floods, the news came to his children that Dr. Rivenburg was 'crossing the bar.' For ten days Narola sat by his bedside, during which time he was often preaching, sometimes in the Ao and sometimes in Angami. Once he evidently was reliving the day in which he received his government medal. The end came so peacefully and quietly that those in the room did not even know that the Angel of Death had entered.

"Dr. Rivenburg had asked that his funeral be private, a request most difficult to grant. His brother-in-law, Dr. Milton Evans, read Isaiah 52:7*f* and 2 Timothy 4:6-8, made a few brief remarks, and closed with reading the words of 'Abide with Me.' It had threatened to storm all day, but just as the sun went down in a radiant bank of colored clouds, Dr. Sidney Rivenburg was laid away to rest beside his parents, while the buglers played the notes of the 'Last Post--Day is Done.' and all was well..."

Narola was also a missionary in China[565].

Norris, Ward G. Norris, Henry J. Norris, all of Thompson, Susquehanna Co., PA. In another book Mary Potter found a poem written in by Lucinda E. Norris which may or may not have been composed by her as follows:

"I think of thee, my friend
In my sad and lonely hours
And the thought of thee warms me
Like the breath of morning flowers.
Like the music that enchants the ear
Like sights that bless the eye

Like the verdure of the meadow
The azure of the sky.
Like rainbow in the evening
Like blossoms on the tree
Is the thought of thee, dear friend,
Is the tender thought of thee."

In the book there were no quotes so it is assumed that Henry's sister Lucinda E. Norris wrote this poem.

"Charles Anderson, my husband, was too old for the draft of World War I and therefore gave an ambulance and drove it in France. He saw plenty of service action at the front but was not in our army. He was attached to the French Army and I believe he received 5 sous a day. As a member of the American Field Service he paid all of his expenses. Therefore he is not a veteran of the war. Charles was an importer of crude drugs, etc." (as stated by Mary Antoinette).

08-01027-02 MAURICE (nmn) TINGLEY[9] (Richard[8], George[7], Hartford[6], Nathan[5], Timothy[4], Thomas[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of New York, NY, born Dec. 15, 1891 at Pawtucket, RI; died in his sleep Sep. 22, 1973; married Sep. 23, 1922 at Episcopal Church of the Intercession, NY City, Florence Levena, daughter of Charles William and Martha Levena (Howarth) Bonner, of Seattle, WA, born May 2, 1894 at Seattle, WA; no children. Florence's father, Charles W. Bonner, was a native of Louisville, KY and her mother, Martha Levena Howarth was a native of Clonmel, Ireland. Maurice was an import agent, mainly of crude rubber and lived in the Malay 1920-21.

"Friends and family of Maurice say that he was exceptional -- a beautiful, lovable character, knowledgeable, intellectual, and well-read. His hobby since retiring was reading and comparing literature. He made notes all the time - he would read three or more books at the same time - never straight through one and then start another. He would read a while in one, put it down for another, and, then another but the remarkable thing to me was that he did not get them mixed up and his memory was remarkable. He was well-read in mythology, in fact, Maurice should never have been in the business world. He would have been a marvelous professor for he loved research and he had the ability to pass on information.

"While he is gone in body he cannot be forgotten in spirit. Maurice also had a period of painting in water colors. I kept a set that is much admired - he was prolific and I gave away a lot of them.

"Maurice wished no services - they were private and he was cremated and his ashes scattered in the East River that carries so many of our fond memories and happy hours." (Written by Florence, his beloved wife). Since his death she has moved to United Presbyterian Residence, 378 Syosset-Woodbury Rd., Woodbury, L.I., NY 11797.

Frances Justina was known as Jane.

Edith Lucile, unm., resides at 520 Geary Street, Apt. 106, San Francisco, CA 94102. A sketch of Edith Lucile's life, as written by her in 1975, follows:

"I have no startling or juicy tidbits to offer. I've worked all of my life and at various times have been responsible for members of my family who made their home with me. My life was not devoid of romance, but it seems I had no time for marriage.

"I graduated from East High School in Cleveland, OH, in June 1923. Subsequently I attended evening classes at Cleveland College, the downtown campus of Western Reserve University, taking courses in Business Administration, Accounting and Psychology.

"I was employed from September 1923 to October 1942 by the National Life Insurance Company of Vermont. I started as switchboard operator and receptionist and advanced to head of Accounts Receivable and when I resigned my position to enter a War Plant in 1942, I was Cashier and Assistant Office Manager.

"I worked as timekeeper at Cleveland Graphite Bronze Co. (Clevite Corp.) from 1942 thru early 1946. I took several weeks vacation in the summer of 1946, taking a trip to California, my first -- never dreaming that one day California would be my home!

"Returning from my vacation, I went to work for A. S. Gilman Printing Co. where I was Assistant Production Mgr and Secretary to the General Manager. I stayed here only two years but made some wonderful friends that I cherish. In 1948 I returned to the Insurance Field but this time General Insurance instead of Life. I worked as bookkeeper for C.E. Preslan & Co., for nine years then stunned Mr. Preslan by telling him that I was leaving to move to California. It seems they had looked upon me as a fixture with the Company.

"On September 4, 1957, I moved to Monterey, California and resided with a nephew and his wife. I enjoyed Monterey, Carmel, and the whole Monterey peninsula which I learned to know very well in seven weeks. Then one Monday morning I took the bus to San Francisco where I was a total stranger. Within one half hour after I reached the City I had a job. I was hired as bookkeeper by Crum & Forster, a large insurance company whose home office is in New York City. I remained with Crum & Forster for 11 ½ years or until I retired officially in 1969. I feel a bit smug about this last phase of my employment because when I applied for that job and got it I was 53 years of age! I guess they liked my credentials as I had recommendations from all of my previous employers.

"After retirement from Crum & Forster, I worked for the San Francisco Board of Education as Tutor in the San Francisco Elementary Schools, teaching English, Reading and Math. This was most rewarding and I was very sorry to give it up but felt I should supplement my income so in 1970, I accepted a job as assistant apartment manager. It is not an easy job as there are a lot of pressures and responsibilities. I feel that soon I should retire again and do part time volunteer work and enjoy more freedom and travel some.

"So, that is pretty much the way its been. Oh, I've belonged to a few clubs altho I'm not really a joiner. I belonged to Toastmistresses International for several years and received several trophies for winning in Speech Contests.

"For many years I have been an avid Pro-Football fan having followed the Cleveland Browns for years and I do mean follow, as Mike (my fiance) and I would go to New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh, wherever the Browns played. This was during the forties and fifties when the Browns under the genius of Paul Brown, whom I knew, were Super-Champs. So, with all the work, I had a lot of good times and fun along the way."

The following was supplied by Maxine Seglem as written by her mother, Pearl Fillmore Thompson:

"Some Memories of Pearl Thompson"

"Around 1845 three Fillmore brothers (Englishmen) left England and came to New Brunswick across the Bay of Fundy from Halifax.

"I can remember hearing my dad tell of the hardships, especially the cold winters. The bay would freeze over and they could cross over with a team and sled to go to Halifax. The fishing was good and there was much wild fruit especially cranberries. They had to walk four miles to school which lasted only a few months each year.

"They cut the timber to make their lumber. A nice walnut cupboard was handed down from them. Part of it is in my piano bench now, made by Dad Thompson.

"In (around) 1865 the brothers came to the U.S.A. and settled in Illinois. They took out naturalization papers. About then the free land or homesteading was offered in Kansas. One brother stayed in Illinois; the other two, John and Ben, came to Kansas and settled on claims east of Leon.

"John was my grandfather; his wife was a small Irish girl. They were married before leaving England. They had six boys and four girls in their family, George, my father was the eldest and so got his naturalization papers first to be a citizen of the U.S.A. The others of the family were younger than 21 years. There were George, John, Green, Clark, Tom, Harvey, Rebecca, Ellen, Rosa, and Ida.

"Rosa died at the age of ten years. Ida passed away while in the 20's but she was a wife and mother. All the rest had large families except Tom who only had four.

"My father married Maggie Musick in 1876 whose father had come from Kirksville, MO, to settle in Kansas. Grandpa Musick was a Captain in the U.S. Army in the Civil War. He had been injured so he lived only a few years more. Kansas didn't agree with him so they all went back to Missouri. Bert (Albert), Stella, and Velma were born in Missouri. Then my parents returned to Kansas and settled on the claim. Arl, Pearl, Herbert, Mary and Marie were all born there.

"The pioneer life was rough at times - bad years, etc., but they were always busy and happy. The family always took great interest in politics, community affairs, and especially the church. They helped to organize and build the Little Walnut Baptist Church. Our life was in the church and school.

"Fond memories of my father was in the evening, after a day of hard work, seeing him sitting and reading his Bible. My mother had a sweet voice and was choir leader getting the note by using the tuning fork as there was no organ yet. She knew all the late songs and would sing them often to us. She had an education to teach but raised a family instead, but could help us very much. She enjoyed singing and lots of fun. My dad was more quiet. Just 51 years old my mother went to her reward and in 15 months after her passing my dad left us too. Mother's physical troubles were leakage of the heart and papa's trouble was the liver; some doctors thought was cancer."

It is thought that she must have written more but this is all they have found.

The following was supplied by Simeon Addison's daughter Margaret:

"Thomas Henry Fillmore, owner and proprietor of 'Little Walnut Stock Farm' in Glencoe Twp., is one of Butler county's leading farmers and stockmen. Mr. Fillmore, a native of New Brunswick, came to Kansas with his parents in 1870, and two years later, settled in Butler county, and has lived on his present place of 720 acres, for the past fifteen years. The place is known as 'Little Walnut Stock Farm', and is one of the ideal stock farms, not only in Butler county, but of the State. Mr. Fillmore specializes in Herefords, of which he has a very fine herd; and also keeps a number of cattle of the ordinary marketable type, and his entire herd usually averages about 300 head. He has also been successful as a feeder, and raises a large number of calves each year. 'Little Walnut Stock Farm' is an attractive and splendidly equipped stock farm in every particular, with a commodious residence, large and well arranged barn, shed, silo and garage, and all buildings about the place are kept in good repair and well painted. The residence stands on an eminence, overlooking the broad acres of well kept and highly cultivated bottom land, which in the summer season, presents an ideal scene of pastural life with its fields of waving grain and green mantle of alfalfa, furnishes mute testimony of its owner's mastery of the art of agriculture. The place is located on the south branch of the Little Walnut, which winds its labyrinthian way like a silver thread down through the valley, which adds the finishing touch of nature's brush to the landscape. No more beautiful countryside can be found.

"Mr. Fillmore was united in marriage to Miss Jennie Blankenbaker, and to this union four children were born, as follows: Orloff, Addison, Lloyd, and Leona. Mr. Fillmore is progressive and public spirited, and is always ready and willing to lend his aid to any movement or enterprise that has for its object the betterment of the community.

"Mrs. Jennie Fillmore's mother, Mrs. Mattie M. Blankenbaker, of Glencoe Twp., is one of the brave pioneer women who came to Butler county in the early days when conveniences and comforts were few, and hardships and privations many. Mrs. Blankenbaker was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1845, a daughter of James and Nancy (Hyndman) Dunlap, both natives of Ireland. Mrs. Blankenbaker has one surviving sister, Mrs. Charles Mitchell, of LyCygne, KS. Shortly after her marriage to Mr. Blankenbaker they came to Kansas and remained for a short time in Linn county, and in 1879 came to Butler county and preempted a quarter section of land in Glencoe Twp., which has since been the family home. Mr. Blankenbaker was a Civil War veteran, having served as a member of Company I, Sixty-seventh regiment, Indiana infantry. He was a brave soldier and was honorably discharged after having made an unusually good military record. He was at the siege of Vicksburg, Murfreesboro and a number of other important and hard-fought battles of the Civil War. At Murfreesboro he had the misfortune of being taken prisoner, and after the war he was always fond of relating how he shouted with joy at the sight of the stars and stripes, after he had been released from the Confederate prison and exchanged. He served three years in the army.

"S.A. Blankenbaker and Mattie M. Dunlap were married in 1866, and the following children were born to this union: Mrs. Jennie Fillmore, Leon, Kans.; Clinton, Latham; Mrs. Bernice Butts, Keighley, KS; Clyde, Keighley, KS, and Mrs. Beryl Evans, Kansas City, KS. Clyde is living on the home farm with his mother and in addition to operating the home farm, rents 160 acres in that vicinity, and is one of the prosperous farmers and stockmen of Glencoe Twp. Mr. Blankenbaker died, suddenly, in the Odd Fellows Hall at Beaumont, KS, Jan. 7, 1911, being stricken with heart failure. He was a prominent member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and for years had been active and influential in that Order and was much in demand at special meetings and extraordinary gatherings of members of that lodge. He also took an active interest in local, political affairs and was prominent in the community. He had held several local offices of trust and responsibility, having been trustee of Glencoe Twp.

"Mrs. Blankenbaker remembers many incidents connected with the pioneer life of this county, of which the present generation know little. When she came here there were deer and antelope and large quantities of small game. One day while she and her husband were hauling a load of corn they discovered a herd of antelope, and Mr. Blankenbaker became so excited that at first, he started after the antelope, leaving his wife perched on the load of corn, but upon second thought, he unhitched one of the horses, mounted it and went in pursuit of the antelope. Like the other early pioneers Mrs. Blankenbaker was exposed to the many dangers that beset the early settlers, the chief ones of which were prairie fires and cyclones. She has always had a dread of cyclones, and she is very thankful that in their playful pranks over the plains they have thus far missed her."

THE FILLMORE FARM
(MEMOIRS COMPILED BY ETHEL F. ROAKEY FILLMORE)

"Cyrus Allen Fillmore, born Oct. 29, 1829, in New Brunswick, Canada, was the third son of Agreen and Jane (Read) Fillmore, (Grandfather Fillmore had always told everyone his middle name of Allen was his mother's maiden name... the Tingley book says 'Read'.) There were seven children in the family: Rufus, John Edward, Cyrus Allen, Albert Green, Benjamin, Jemima, and Samuel. Their father was killed in a sleigh accident at Bayside, N.B., in 1843.

"The family had a hard time getting along. Grandpa Fillmore used to tell a story of his mother and the older boys being out in the woods, gathering fuel, when a half-grown bear attacked them. She didn't know what else to do, so grabbed a stick of wood, hit the bear over the head, and killed it. Another story was of the boys herding cows, first on one little island, then another. They would bring the cows home with the evening tide, holding onto an animal's tail to ride the tide. This was considered great fun.

"Cyrus' mother later married Thomas Casey, a school teacher, who was very strict with the children. At his insistence, all the lads attended school. Cyrus had a good education for those days.

"Cyrus knew there must be a better place to live than on the poor and rocky soil of New Brunswick, so he left there in 1848 or 1849 (we do not know the exact date) and made his way to Rockford, IL. Others from N.B. had settled in Rockford before he arrived. He commenced farming, and married a neighbor girl by name of Ruth Dobson in 1853. Children born of this union were: Herbert D., 1855; Robert P., 1857; Blanche, 1859; Mehale, born 1865, died 1869 in KS; Corabelle, born 1872 in KS. Corabelle's daughter, Mrs. Inez (Maxwell) Kearney lives in Kansas City. A daughter of Blanche, Margaret Denham Beals, lives in Oakland, CA. An adopted daughter of Herbert D., Olive Hopp, is living in IL at this writing (May 1973).

"Cyrus Fillmore served three years in the Civil War with Company C, 64th Infantry, IL. From the community where he lived, nearly every able-bodied man joined the Army. He knew when his Company was coming by the farm to pick him up, so he bid his family goodbye, told his wife that when she saw the team standing at the road she would know he had left, and plowed ground until the cadre appeared. It was more than three years later when he returned home. He had been shot in an elbow, and afterwards could never straighten out his arm. During his Army service he had contracted typhoid fever, and while very ill for a long period of time, a southern family cared for him in their home. This southern lady wrote Cyrus' wife, telling all that had happened to him, and said that as soon as he was able to travel, they would help him get started home. He made it home, but wanted to go to Kansas, as he had heard so much about the state. So, in 1867, Cyrus arrived in Kansas (method of transportation is unknown). He bought the old farm on June 14, 1867, from William Cable, in Topeka, who had received a land grant signed by President Andrew Johnson. He paid Cable $1125 for the land. He built a log cabin, and dug a cave, rocking up the walls of the cave. There was no floor in the cabin. Some say he put in a crop that first year, but I am not sure about that, as all the ground was covered with timber. That was what he loved about the farm -- its abundance of large trees. In the years to come, no one but a member of his family ever farmed this ground.

"Cyrus returned to IL for his family, bringing them back to Kansas the following spring in a covered wagon. Several other families were also in the caravan, some wagons of which were drawn by oxen. They arrived early in the spring of 1868. (Abstract of title shows deed to Cyrus' farm was filed May 1, 1868.) They told of an incident that occurred as they drove over a hill just before getting to their destination: A band of Indians appeared over a hill from the southwest, from the area which later was to be Arvonia. The Indians had been on the warpath, but they disappeared to the northeast, never paying any attention to the covered wagons. Cyrus' wife, and the other women, were very frightened, but the Indians never caused them any trouble.

"Settled on his farm, Cyrus soon had a sawmill. (When Herbert A. Fillmore was back here in 1910, he said the first sawmill was located north and east of where the two Cable creeks came together, where there was much heavy timber.) They lived in the cabin only the first year, while erecting a building (to be called the granary) in which they could live until a house could be built. This first building, in which they lived for years, had a basement which was used as stalls for the horses and cows, the family living immediately above.

"Herbert told how they used a yoke of oxen to drag the logs up to the sawmill. They cut ties for the railroad when it came through Osage City in 1870. Herbert was 13 years old when they came to Kansas; Robert, 11, and Blanche was 9. The following notes were sent to me by Blanche's daughter, Margaret Beals:

"'Grandmother Ruth's folks wrote her (Ruth) about the nice things they had, and the musical concerts they attended in IL. Ruth wrote back that she had a log house, a dirt floor which did not take much sweeping, and as for music, she was serenaded every night by a band of coyotes. One of Ruth's sisters is said to have commented: 'to think you left a good home, friends, and family for this!'

"'Grandfather Fillmore had to take his wheat to Topeka, the nearest mill. He would take a wagon load of wheat and corn to have ground, enough to supply the family for a year. The trip would take a week, for the farm was 48 miles from Topeka. No money was exchanged...the miller got half the grain for his work. One year, the entire family was confined to bed with grippe (flu) except Mamma (Blanche). They had no flour. Grandpa took sick just before he was to make the trip to Topeka, so Mamma pounded corn as fine as she could and made cornbread.'

"Cyrus had two brothers who also came to Kansas. Benjamin and John, together, and with their families, came to the U.S. from New Brunswick in 1869. They lived in Rockford, IL (where John's eighth child was born in March of 1871) from 1870 to 1873 or 1874, when they again moved, together, to Osage County, KS. Then a year or so later, again moved together to Butler Co., KS. In 1892, both families moved to Langston, OK. This information was given to me by Mr. and Mrs. Julius Holsinger of McPherson, KS. Freeda (Fillmore) Holsinger is a granddaughter of John Fillmore. These two brothers farmed for a couple of years up the river from where Cyrus lived. They moved on down around El Dorado, KS, then on to OK. Besides being a farmer, Ben was a Baptist Minister.

"Cyrus was quite modern, for his time. He bought the first sewing machine, and the first organ for his daughter Blanche, and had the first reaper and threshing machine on the river. If he didn't have the money, he would put another mortgage on the farm. He was a very intelligent man, and could do almost anything. He also had a fiery temper... everyone had to jump to his music.

"On the farm, all the low ground was covered with good timber, which Cyrus cleared, utilizing his sawmill to cut lumber for himself and others. The northwest portion of the farm was on higher ground, and here he erected his buildings, out of reach of the floods that were to come.

"Settlers came in great numbers around 1870. That year, a large group of immigrants from Wales settled in what they named Arvonia. With the advent of the railroad, they anticipated a city of some size...but when built, the railroad was several miles to the south, and Arvonia remains a small crossroads settlement, which has declined in population over the years.

"In those early days, education was a problem. Cyrus hired a young woman from Burlingame to teach the children. At this time, they were living in the granary, and had lots of room. Also living with the family was a young man, hired to help clear the timber from the land. The teacher and the hired hand were very bashful people, with very little to say. The Fillmore family would go to bed, leaving these two sitting by the fireplace. Cyrus is said to have laughed with his wife, wondering if the two ever talked together, and he commented that 'the young man was too bashful to even hold her hand.' The young man returned to Burlingame to start spring work. When it was time for the teacher to return home, they told her they were very pleased with her work with the children, and asked if she would come back next fall. She hesitated, then said, 'August found a farm up near Burlingame, and as soon as the cabin he is building is finished, we are getting married, so I won't be returning.' The laugh was on Grandfather Fillmore.

"The settlers to the east of them had a school. He always used to call it 'The Old Jessee Schoolhouse', built in 1870 I think, and later called Glenwood. Children for miles around came to that school. Grandfather Fillmore and old Mr. Booth went over to Lyndon, the county seat, and arranged for organization of what was called 'the Booth School', later to be known as 'District 63, Mt. Pleasant.' All the Fillmore children and others who happened to stay at their home, went to school here. Among them was Joe C. Maxwell of Blackfoot, Idaho, who passed away July 20, 1973.

"Ruth Dobson Fillmore, Cyrus' wife died in February, 1880, from lung fever, after a lengthy illness. Cyrus remarried in December 1880...Mrs. Lorraine (Maxwell) Wilson, widow of Crockett Wilson. Lorraine had two children, Anna and John, who came with her to the farm. Anna (about the same age as Cyrus' daughter Corabelle) didn't stay at the farm all the time. To Cyrus and Lorraine were born five children: Cyrus Earl and Lorraine Pearl, twins, born July 3, 1882. Earl was killed in a tractor accident in April of 1953, and Pearl died October, 1965. Thomas Greene, born Jan. 21, 1885; died Mar. 27, 1964. Eugene Paul, born Mar. 16, 1887; died Aug. 6, 1973. Fred Amos, born Mar. 26, 1889; died Jan. 3, 1968.

"This second wife, Lorraine, is our 'Grandmother Fillmore'. She was born May 27, 1850, in Iowa. Her parents lived at Center Point, IA. She came to Kansas when nine years of age, and always said she walked nearly every step of the way. She and her brothers would herd the cattle behind the wagons. They arrived at Easton, KS, in August of 1859. Her father lived only a couple of years after coming to KS. The family settled permanently at Easton. One sister, Susan, was married in Iowa, and with her husband, left for the Northwest before the family moved to Kansas. Susan and husband finally settled on Puget Sound (Mt. Vernon) in the state of Washington.

"Grandmother Fillmore's oldest brother, Joe Maxwell, saw service in the Civil War, and is buried at Fort Leavenworth. She loved to tell about things that happened during the Civil War...and of having danced with William F. (Buffalo Bill) Cody. She went to work at Omaha, NE, and there met and married Mr. Wilson. Her son John was six months old when his father died of cancer. In the meantime, her brothers had heard of the great coal fields here at Osage City, so the mother and brothers and youngest sister, Jane, moved to Osage. After Lorraine's husband's death, she made her home with her mother (Mrs. Tom Maxwell). Her brothers were Joe, William, John, and Jim. The youngest, Tommy, was thrown from a horse and killed when he was fourteen years old, before the family moved to Osage.

"After her marriage to Cyrus Fillmore, she sold the house she owned in Omaha, and used the money to help build, in 1882, the house on Cyrus' farm in Osage County. The house was built just after the twins were born. A lot of the lumber used was from trees on the farm, and cut with the family sawmill. The finishing lumber was hauled from Burlingame. This was a one-story house until 1925 when Fred, who took over the farm, built the second story. When the farm was taken over by the Melvern Reservoir, the house was moved to Osage City in 1971, where it is now owned by one of Fred's sons, Edd Fillmore and family.

"Grandfather Fillmore went back to see his people in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia in October of 1882. He was gone a month, and had a wonderful time.

"Nothing much exciting happened for a few years. Have heard them tell about the hard times during the '90's...a good cow or horse would sell for $10. Grandmother Fillmore told of one Thanksgiving when they took a lumber wagon load of turkeys and chickens to town for sale, but couldn't sell them, and had to bring them back home. No market for eggs, either.

"Grandfather Fillmore died of pneumonia in Apr. of 1895. (The doctor called it 'lung fever'.) He had developed a terrible cold and was confined to bed for three weeks before his death. It was potato-planting time, and he was worried about the planting. He wore old felt boots, and refused to take them off. Grandmother tried and tried to get him to take them off, but he would say he had to get up and plant potatoes. Tom Moore (Anna's husband) came down to the farm and coaxed grandfather until he let Tom remove the felt boots and bathe his feet, after which he said, 'Oh, that feels so good.' He had determination, if anyone ever did. Had he had his way, he would have died 'with his boots on'.

"Grandmother Maxwell (Lorraine's mother) made her home with them for several years. She died about 1898. All of these people are buried in Alpine Cemetery, three miles east and a half mile north of the old farm site. Lemuel died in 1881. Inez Kearney tells me that Mehale was buried in Arvonia Cemetery.

"There were good years and lean years...drought, and grasshopper years...unseasonable winters and summers...untimely freezes, and floods. Many a Thanksgiving dinner was held on the old farm. In fact, that was the big event of the year. After the big dinner, the men would go hunting, the smaller children would play in the yard, while the women 'tidied up' and exchanged hints of news and gossip. Numerous large family gatherings were held on the farm, with relatives coming from all parts of the country. During the Depression Years of the 1930's, the Fillmore farm was known far and wide for its Saturday night dances, and the summer months saw many baseball games played on its much-used ball diamond.

"Now, the Melvern Reservoir has taken over the old farm, and all that is left are memories. There will soon be nothing left to show that anyone ever lived there. In a few years, all will be covered with water, where once was good farm land."

wife went on Mon. to Spring Lake to attend funeral of their nephew Dana Brown, only child of C.P. Brown formerly of this city. The young man was well known here, had suffered a second attack of appendicitis and died during an operation Friday night. The blow falls heavily on his parents. He was 26 years old and was of more than ordinary promise[119].

"Mrs. Brown was a lady of rare musical accomplishments and a brilliant leader in society.

"Dr. C.P. Brown of Spring Lake is inventer and patentee of a music turner which enables the pianist to turn the music sheet without lifting the hand above the keyboard. He had the construction of this invention in mind for 20 years. It involves a peculiar movement in flying the leaves, which the patent office was unable to classify. Copyrights for this and foreign countries have been secured and the invention promises to be a bonanza for the genial doctor." (from Hudson Gazette of May 30, 1890)[119].

"Henry moved with his family from Maple Park, IL, to Dows, IA, where his father bought and farmed forty acres. After the death of his mother, his father took the family to West Virginia and farmed. Times were very hard so they again moved to Waudenna, MN, where his father ran a sawmill. It was here that Henry, about 16 years old, paid his father $200 for his time and left home to work in the lumber camps, etc. for the next few years. Later he came down to Iowa and bought a 160 acre raw piece of land for $10.00 an acre. After building a house and barn, planting a few trees, breaking prairie sod, and getting some crops in, he married a school teacher, Julia Ann Walton. Here they raised their family.

"Julia Ann Walton was born and raised on a farm at Oakland Valley, IA. She taught school for many years and she taught in country schools where no one else would teach because of disciplining problems. She also taught her two youngest sons at school. If Julia wanted something done she would get it done one way or another. Julia built chimneys from pretty rocks she had collected. She built a beautiful arch-way in the front yard with climbing vines over it.

"Julia and Henry were good parents. They taught their family about the Lord and had family worship in the home. After their third child, Nellie, was born they rented the farm out and moved to Lake Park, IA, where their son, Charles Wesley was born. While here Henry sold Case machinery. Later they moved back to their farm by Dows, IA, where Lloyd was born. They again decided to move, this time to Dixon, MO, where John was born. Here Henry sold cord wood to the railroad. Soon after they moved back to the farm near Dows, IA. Soon after moving back their youngest son, Dezell, was born. A few years later they completely remodeled their home with running water, bath room and gas lamps. The water was heated with a laundry stove that had a hot water jacket. They had one of the most up to date homes around. In 1919 they sold the farm and moved to Zion, IL, because of the teachings of the Christian Catholic Church.

"Julia and Henry bought three houses in Zion City and lived in one of them. They later bought land and ten acres of vineyard in the country and built a new set of buildings and then moved out to the farm.

"After the death of Henry in 1927, the depression of the 30's hit and Julia lost all of the property. She remarried H. Hendricson. Julia and her second husband went on a visit to Lynden, WA to visit her son Ben. Julia had failing health and passed away while in WA. She was buried there. Henry was buried in Zion, IL."

"G. Alonzo Henry Crabtree told these stories to his children and Dezell Crabtree, Henry's youngest son told them to his children: First story --

"While the Crabtree family (Richard and Mary) lived in Chicago, IL their son (John James) Great Uncle Jim, as he was known, worked at Chicago Harbor carrying salt pork to a loading ship. Two men, one on each side, were to carry a barrel of salt pork to the loading ship. Great Uncle Jim, a very strong man, said, 'let me carry the barrel alone.' So he did and it was decided that if Jim did the work of two men he would get paid two men's pay."

"George (another son of Richard and Mary) was married in Chicago but later he and his wife, Sara Jane, moved to Dows, IA. Second story --

"George and Sarah Jane lived near Dows, IA, and farmed their forty acres by the Iowa River. One beautiful, winter, Sunday morning George was to go to a rural church near Clarion to preach. He decided to walk, so he got up early in the morning and walked across the prairie (there were no fences) to the rural church southeast of Clarion. After preaching and probably eating a bite in someone's home, or a lunch he might have taken with him, he started for home. Then the sky turned gray, the wind began to blow, and the snow began to drift, and before long George was in one of Iowa's blizzards. George, not getting excited, decided to drift with the wind until he came to the river, this being the general direction of his home and other homesteaders. Many times he stumbled and fell but he knew he must keep going. After what to him seemed like hours, he stumbled over a sapling someone had planted. He knew then he was near someone's home. He decided to make a circle around the tree, each time going further from it. Soon he came to the house, where he stayed the night and the next morning until the storm had subsided, then he continued home."

"After the death of his wife, Sarah Jane, George and his family moved to West Virginia and lived near an Uncle of George's, Elijah Harris Crabb (Crabtree). Third story --

"While George Crabtree lived in West Virginia he visited his Uncle Elijah Harris Crabb. Uncle Elijah was a very clever man. Henry, a son of George Crabtree went along many times to visit Uncle Elijah. One particular time while Henry and his dad were visiting Uncle Elijah, Uncle Elijah took three tumblers and went to the log stairway that led up to the loft. He worked out a knot and held the tumblers under the hole, and girgled apple cider. After filling the tumblers he put the knot back in. Henry had often wondered how Uncle Elijah had fixed it so apple cider would come out of that knot."

08-00241-03 DORA LOUISE DOBSON-CRABTREE-SHELDON[9] (Rebekah[8], John[7], Jemima[6], Josiah[5], Samuel[4], Samuel[3], Samuel[2], Palmer[1]), of Scranton, IA, born Feb. 24, 1856 at Roscoe, IL; died Apr. 26, 1946 at Ft. Dodge, IA; married Jan. 26, 1880 at Maple Park, IL, Newton Brewer, son of Silas, Jr. and Abigail B. (Smith) Sheldon, of So. Hadley, MA, then Maple Park, IL, born Sep. 7, 1836 at Savannah, NY; died Nov. 12, 1915 at Scranton, IA, last 8 years was a shut-in, crippled by rheumatism and cared for by his wife and children, a widower with three children by his first wife, Emma Libby, when Dora and Newton were married. For 30 years of his life, walked on a pair of crutches[201]. For her first marriage see: 09-00576, Volume II.

From her obituary: "Dora L. Dobson, daughter of Abraham and Rebecca Fillmore Dobson, was born at Rockford, IL, Feb.

24, 1856.

"She passed away after a lingering illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C.F. Hayward, Apr. 26, 1946, at the age of 90 years, 2 months and 2 days.

"When she was ten years of age, her mother died and she lived with relatives and friends. At the age of 14 she moved with an aunt to Wright County, Iowa, traveling in a covered wagon. She received her education in country schools and at Webster City, IA, and then taught school a short time.

"On Jan. 26, 1880 she was married to Newton B. Sheldon at Maple Park, IL. The couple lived in IL for a year and then moved near Scranton, IA, where they farmed until 1900 when they moved into Scranton where they lived until Mr. Sheldon's death in 1915.

"Since 1916 Mrs. Sheldon spent most of her time in California. The past four years she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Hayward. She joined the Methodist Church in her early youth and until the past two years when she had been confined to her home, she was a very active church worker and was especially interested in missionary work. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Women's Society of Christian service and the Women's Bible Class of First Methodist Church."

From his obituary: "The final sad tribute of respect was paid to a splendid citizen last Friday afternoon, Nov. 19th, 1915, at the M.E. church, when the former friends and neighbors gathered with the family and relatives of N.B. Sheldon at his funeral. The church was well filled and the service was fitting and appropriate for the passing of a good man. Rev. J.E. Lombard of Greenfield, Iowa, who was a friend and pastor of the deceased man for nearly three years, conducted the services. The remains were laid to rest in the Scranton cemetery.

"The Journal cannot pay adequate tribute to the goodly life of the good citizen whose funeral is recorded in the above. Scranton has been his town for nearly 35 years. He was known among us as an untiring and faithful church worker; as a man foremost among his fellows in every good cause, and he combined unusual ability with irreproachable character. For the past eight years he has been one of the world's unfortunates, being confined to his home in a helpless condition. He has not only been a 'shut-in', but he has been an intense sufferer. The loving hands of wife and children have never failed to contribute in every possible way to his comfort, but he has been dependent upon others. Through it all he has been patient and it has been an inspiration to visit him. Mr. Sheldon fought a good fight and left a splendid legacy to the widow and children who mourn their great loss.

"Newton Brewer Sheldon, son of Silas and Abigail Smith Sheldon, was born in the state of New York, Sep. 7, 1836. When he was 4 years old he moved with his parents to Michigan and from there to Illinois. When he was fourteen years old his father died, and he being the oldest of five children, assisted his widowed mother in every way possible in taking care of the younger children, of whom three are living: Rev. O.P. Sheldon, of Los Angeles, CA; Mrs. C.A. Walrod, of Haydon, CO, Mr. H. S. Sheldon, of Bradshaw, NE. In his young manhood he found pardon for his sins and joined the M.E. church in 1861, and was a faithful member until called up higher, Nov. 17, 1915, age 79y 2m 10d. In 1866 he married Emma Libby, who died Nov. 28, 1877. To this union was born three children, Mrs. Abbie Lawton of Churdon, Mrs. Emma Lawton of Cooper, and Charlie, who died April, 1902. In 1880, Mr. Sheldon married Mrs. Dora L. Crabtree of Maple Park, IL. In 1881 he moved to Greene Co., IA, locating in Jackson Township, where he improved a piece of wild prairie. In this home was born three children: Elsie and Fern, at home, and Mrs. Winnie Hayward, of Bruce, Wisconsin. There also remain to mourn their loss sixteen grandchildren and one great grandchild. For the last 25 years Mr. Sheldon has been a great sufferer from rheumatism. In 1900 he gave up the active duties of life and moved to Scranton, which has since been his home. Throughout all his suffering he was very patient and thoughtful of others and his faith in God never wavered."

Copy of letter written by Dora to her twin granddaughters -- supplied by Donna Greer:

"Dear Twinnies: You are 12 years old. I wish you many happy returns of the day. My mind goes back nearly 55 years to a 12 year old girl I knew, she was born in Roscoe, IL. They named this baby girl Dora Louise.

"When she could talk she called herself Dozey Gowlzy. She had a daddy, mama, a grandfather and grandmother to love and care for her. She loved them dearly. Dora like other little girls, would not stay small.

"When she was three years old, she followed her grandpa to the field where he was working. A storm came up and oh how the wind did blow. Her grandpa started to the house with her. Mother met him, carried her baby girl to the house and put her to bed. In the morning when Dora looked out the window, everything was upset and the wagon tongue run through a building, high up. It looked so strange to her even if she was a little girl.

"How Dora did love her grandpa, he cared for her so much, would carry her pick a pack, trot her on his foot, singing.

"Dora could, of those days, remember only grandpa and grandma, but she kept growing older.

"Then they left the farm and moved to the city, Rockford was the name and such a good time as she had, playing with other little girls and boys, and yes she'd run away from home. One time she went home with some children who lived in a little house by the river. She always remembered how the house looked on the inside.

"In one corner was a pig in a pen, on the bedstead and cupboard in another corner, hens were roosting. While she was thinking how queer it was to have those things in the house, that she was used to seeing in the sheds and barn, in came Dora's grandma with a switch and whipped her all the way home. Dora learned to stay at home.

"Company came to see her. They were playing 'I spy' and mama turned a tub over her and her company couldn't find her. Dora's daddy bought her a slate. How proud she was to be called a school girl.

"One day Dora was out with her mama who was hanging out clothes near the sidewalk, when the strangest looking men she had ever seen came along. Their faces were red and feathers in their hair and blankets around them. Dora ran to her mama screaming, so frightened, that she would not go out doors for a long time.

"Something was wrong with daddy. He was sick so often. One day grandpa and grandma had to go and live with a daughter. Another grandpa came and took mother and little baby brother Julian and Dora home with him. Yes, Dora had a baby brother who was getting large enough to play with her and such good times as they had playing together, now they had a new home and no daddy.

"Dora did not like this new grandpa. She was afraid of him. He did not smile at her or play with her, but always to her, looked cross and she kept out of his way, and missed her other grandpa that was left so far away.

"She had been in this new grandma's kitchen not long when something went wrong. She couldn't do what she wanted, but did what she had been doing, frightening her mama. She threw herself on the floor screaming and holding her breath. Now what do you think this strange grandma did? She took a pail that was full of cold water and threw it right over the little miss. Strange to say, Dora jumped up, crying of course and ran to her mother. Would you believe it? She never threw herself down that way again.

"Dora had an auntie 14 years older than she was, who loved her and said she was her little girl. Then there was an Uncle David older than Aunt Cynthia. Another Uncle Benjamin, who was always playing with her when he came. Dora called him Uncle Benjem. One day he came in and Dora could pronounce his name right. He grabbed her up feet over his shoulders, her head hanging down and got to the gate saying now she was his girl, he would take her home with him.

"Uncle David did not pay any attention to Dora. One morning he was in the garden hoeing some green things close to the fence. Dora was helping him, though he did not notice what she was doing. When he reached the end of the row, he straightened up and looked back to see how the little trees looked. Dora reached down and pulled the last one up. There she stood with all those little trees in her hands. He had brought the seeds and nuts from Kansas, planted them and was now resurrecting them from the weeds and Dora, the little pest, had them all in her hands. To this day Dora can remember how astonished and disgusted Uncle David looked. She dropped the trees, he dropped the hoe. She ran when she found she was not helping from the looks and language he used.

"Dora found she made so many mistakes. Another was when she tried to drive the old gobbler. He would take after her and run her into the house.

"One day when she and Julian went to the barn to play, there was daddy. How glad she was to see him. He told her to call mama and not to tell anyone else. He wanted to see her alone. Shortly after, Dora, Julian and mother went back to Rockford.

"This time they lived near Uncle Tom Dobson's and had little cousins to play with. After awhile daddy began to be sick again and was cross to Dora and Julian.

"One day seeing the cousins looking in the window of their home, Dora looked too and there was her Uncle Tom with a chair over his head, smashing everything in the room. One boy said he was crazy, another one said 'Crazy drunk'. Dora was so scared she ran home and told her mother, Daddy was being sick so much that there wasn't much to eat and then a boy told her, 'Your daddy isn't sick, just drunk'. Dora didn't know what made him drunk, but a man came and took all the things out of the house to pay for what daddy had bought at the saloon.

"Grandpa, the one that Dora thought did not like her, came and they got in the wagon with him and started back to his home. Before getting out of the city, Dora saw daddy, and mother had grandpa stop the team and daddy told us he had enlisted. Dora did not know what that meant. Mother, Julian and Dora kissed daddy. We all cried but grandpa did not say anything. It was a long, long time before we saw him again. He had gone to war, they said, but Julian and Dora did not know what war was nor why daddy had to go.

"Now they were all back again at grandma's house and the auntie that Dora liked cried over her. Uncle David had enlisted and Auntie was married to another young man who also enlisted. He and Uncle David were off to the war. Everyone cried but Dora. She did not know that she liked this new Uncle Arnold. He did not care for children.

"Aunt Cynthia had a little cousin, just a baby whom she was caring for. She called him her baby, as his mother died of small pox. Grandpa had no one to help him on the farm now and so Auntie had to help in the fields. Dora and Julian helped everywhere, at least were everywhere, but around grandpa.

"Sometimes it was in the pantry and if the sugar was in sight, they would pop one of the big lumps of brown sugar into their mouths and run, or else they would be out to the barn mixing up grandma's setting hen's eggs. One day they were examining the Fanning Mill, Dora on one side and Julian on the other. Dora thought she would feel of the cogs and her finger was smashed. Julian turned the handle on his side. Dora went screaming to the house. Mother squeezed the finger in shape, bound it up. Dora cried so, that it never was unwrapped until it was well. Mother would hold her fast and pour liniment on, soak it up, and Dora would go around with her hand behind her back because she did not like the smell of it.

"Then there came a time when mother was sick. She called to Dora to bring Julian to her; Dora was half asleep and while carrying Julian, she went by the head of the stairway, and stepped off head first from the top, holding Julian on top of her. When they reached the bottom, grandma came, picked her and Julian up and slapped her saying that she was always into something. Dora had a sore back from scooting down the stairs with Julian on top of her and she was clear awake when she reached the bottom of the stairs.

"There was so much going on those days that there was no one to look after Dora and Julian. When the older folks were through at the table, Dora and Julian stood up for their meals. Grandpa said that children should be seen and not heard. That was one place where they were quiet. Mother had a new baby and it cried and Auntie's baby cried.

"Dora made herself heard when she was vaccinated for smallpox and again with ear ache. They smoked in her ear, but it did no good.

"The winter she was seven, Dora had a birthday party, three little girls and wonder of wonders, a present. The only one ever remembered in her small life. A table, four chairs and a dresser with drawers that would pull out. She kept them until she was sixteen years of age, then others destroyed them.

"One day Dora came in with her hands full of wild flags. Grandma said, 'Here is that child with poisoned flags' and over her knee she went and was spanked. Dora cried and rubbed her hands in her eyes and for weeks and weeks she had sore eyes.

"Why was it Dora had so little remembrance of any pleasant things? She was now sent to school and that winter, Cousin Sophina Dorman came and would you believe it, there were two babies, boy and girl twins, who came to live with us.

"Then in a short time mother and we three children moved into the red house just beyond our pasture. We went to school in the town of Lodi. Mother was at grandpa's helping him most of the time, then oh the scraps and hard times Dora had at school. Baby Frank and Julian were at Grandpa's while mother worked in the fields.

"Now Dora did love to go to the old Baptist Church to Sunday School. Dora saw her mother baptized in that church.

"That winter she was 8 years old and Aunt Mary and two cousins, Eugene and Rose Fillmore, lived with them. They were the same age of Dora and Julian. They drew a chalk line the length of the floor and each family had their own home. The only trouble was that words could be thrown across, but there was always a bed where we could go if we did not behave as good as we should. In the spring, Uncle Ben built their house on the farm and the children used to go out to see it go up. It was only half a mile from town. They moved into it and then Dora began to drive the cow to and from pasture.

"War was going on. Daddy sent her a book, a story about Texas which belonged to Mexico then. He sent mother some money which was in the safe when the depot burned down but the money was not hurt. When mother got it, Dora did not know where she put it, but Julian did and he took it and went to giving it to the boys. Mother and Aunt Cynthia had quite a time finding it. Dora never knew what money looked like those days, though she was now 9 years old the 24th of February. She knew a penny, silver 3 cent, and once saw a gold dollar which daddy sent mother. We scarcely ever had candy. Mother would give us an egg. We would exchange it for candy.

"We used to hear plenty about war. There weren't many papers, no telephones, nor radio. Dora can remember men reading aloud. Can see them now, one standing in a chair reading while a crowd was gathering around. Can't remember whether there were telegraphs then, but there must have been for grandpa got word that Uncle David was wounded. He left the field for mother and Aunt to do and went after him and brought him home. He never would have lived if he hadn't, for he was shot through the hip and it bothered him all the rest of his life. Dora then was trying to keep house while mother worked in the fields.

"Dora was still bothered with sore eyes. Some of the girls said they would pierce her ears, keep them sore, and the eyes would get well. Sure enough they did.

"It seems as though the most we had to eat through war time was beans and corn bread. We had some meat, milk and molasses too.

"One thing Dora will always remember was while taking care of baby Frank. He fell into a dry well at another house close by. It was a deep well, stoned up, with lizards in the bottom of it. Dora heard him scream and she ran out but could not get him. Mother soon came and went down into the well but could not get out with Frank. Dora had to find a man with a long ladder to put down for mother to climb out on.

"We had a cow that grandpa gave to mother. He could not milk her. She had got stuck in the slough. Grandpa put a rope around her horns and pulled her out with the horses and whenever she saw him she would run after him with head down to hook him.

"When mother died, Dora went back to grandpa. When she grew up and was married, grandpa gave her a cow and two calves because this cow was to be Dora's cow when she grew up.

"That summer Dora enjoyed going to S.S., to the Methodist S.S. in the morning before church then to the Baptist church sitting in Uncle Ben's pew, then to S.S. In that church they used to memorize verses. There is where Dora and Nellie Cole were friends (the one that was with grandma Sheldon a few weeks ago). In the afternoon Dora attended the Free Methodist Church and S.S. Here she received a book prize for memorizing the most of the book of St. John.

"We had an addition put on our house that summer. In the Fall Dora was promoted in school, going upstairs. She had quite a sensation. One day while one of the older boys was going to, or visiting school, an officer came into the room and this boy ran and jumped out of the window. Dora was told he was a deserter from the army, not much studying the rest of that day. Dora was given a large slate when she was promoted. One of the older boys wanted it and when she was absent from school one day she found her name had been cut out of her slate and the large boy's name cut in. Dora did some crying and the teacher came and looked at the slate and gave it back to Dora.

"Two blocks from the red house was the depot, one block farther on was Main Street, and two more blocks the school house. Between the red house and depot was the railroad, where freight cars would often stand for days, often empty ones right in Dora's road going to school. It was too far to go around, Dora thought, and as she was so short, by bending over a little she could scoot under the cars. Sometimes when a long train of cars with the engine on, Dora would look to see if they were taking on water or coal and if they were, she would scoot in a hurry. A very dangerous procedure but she was always sure.

"Would you like to know how Dora was dressed? A tight waist, full skirt gathered on to the waist, coming down to the ankles, sleeve puffs, high shoes, heavy ones, never saw slippers. In cold weather long sleeves or a long apron with sleeves. How do you like the picture?

"Two terms Dora went to school to Laura Weed who later was her teacher when she was 12 years of age, and later on was Oscar Sheldon's sister-in-law. Dora's S.S. teacher was Mame Hathorn, the young lady Oscar Sheldon married.

"One morning in November when Dora got up, she found a strange man in the house and mother said it was father. He did not look like father but we soon got acquainted with him. He was back from the army because war was over. President Abe Lincoln had freed the slaves, and then the news came that he had been shot. Dora with others gathered flowers (wild flowers) to be sent to Illinois for when he was buried.

"Dora was getting her hair combed. It was a ceremony performed by mother frequently. Mother sat down with a paper over her lap, fine comb in her hand, and Dora knelt before her with her head over the paper to have her hair combed and the bugs out and cracked. Dora cried so hard as her hair was thick and long and snarled. Mother would say, 'Do you want these lice to make ropes, drag you to the slough, and drown you?' Of course she didn't so that punishment went on.

"It was in December when father made three sleds. One for each of us. We were so proud of them. It was in December that the Methodist S.S. was going to have a Christmas tree. Dora could not remember having seen one and was very much excited over it. She did not know there was a Santa Claus either and she was almost 10 years old, at least none had ever come to her home or she would have remembered. The tree at the church was to have presents on for everybody. Would there be one for her? She was so excited. Mother was sick when she got home from seeing the tree. She gave Dora a package to take to the church and hand to one of the ladies. Mother made her promise she wouldn't open it. Dora ran all the way to the church so not to be tempted to look. Mother was sick so grandma came and took care of her and Dora was worried too, but she went to see the Christmas tree. She was surprised when they gave her the package mother had given her to carry there.

"She had forgotten mother was so sick and a few days later mother died. What it was mother gave Dora she never remembered, her heart was so sad. Dora had seen Aunt Cynthia's little dead baby looking as if asleep and had seen her mother buried in water baptism and now they said they would bury her in the ground. She would not speak to Dora and she cried and father could not comfort her. He was not mother, only a strange man. A cousin came from Roscoe, the town where Dora was born, to the funeral and afterwards grandma took Frank, father, and Julian with her and the cousin took Dora with her. The old red house was shut up and deserted.

"Dora had her first black dress with white dots, and her first ride on the train and she lived on a farm again. Cousin Lavinia had a little girl, Alta, she got up out of bed when we reached there and sung, 'I want to be an angel' for us. That was a song Dora had learned at S.S.-- "I want to be an angel and with the angels stand,

A crown upon my forehead, a harp within my hand,
There just before my Saviour so glorious and so bright
I would make the sweetest music and praise Him day and night."

"There was an Uncle Ephraim and Aunt Ann, cousins Robert and Ephe. Robert was two years older than Dora.

"Dora began going to school right away and Aunt set her to doing chores she had never done before. She wanted to be at Uncle's heels so she learned to milk a cow. When she was 10 years old many things she had learned. The hardest was to sit down and sew. Many tears wet the seam she sewed, but it had to be a certain amount of sewing before going out doors to play.

"Dora was at Uncle's six months. One day father, Julian, and a woman, father said was her new mother, came to Aunt Ann's. They took her back to the red house in Lodi. Dora liked her mother. She went to school again and, as she had nothing to do, had a good time visiting. She was on the run all of the time. Grandma told father that Dora shouldn't be allowed to run everywhere.

"Aunt Cynthia wanted Dora to come and live with her and an old couple in Rockford, whom mother had known, wanted a child Dora's age. Father said she could choose and, child fashion, she chose to go to Rockford to grandpa Avery. And so shortly after or just before 11 years of age, Dora was going to school in Rockford and living with this old couple. They were good to Dora, and she was taught to work. Washing dishes was always her job. She was taught to help in the house and out in the garden with grandpa. She loved to work with him.

"At school she was put in the second reader because she did not know the multiplication table, and here she was punished for the first time with a ferule for whispering. They never caught her again.

"Dora did love to play ball and also enjoyed going to visit a daughter of grandma Avery's where there were two small boys.

"Dora was so homesick to see some of her relations living in Rockford on the other side of the River but they were afraid to come and visit her for fear it would make her want to leave. Dora went to S.S., and once to a picnic on the river bank and to the party which her S.S. teacher gave.

"Dora's shag of long hair was cut boy fashion and while here she had no trouble with bugs in her hair as she used the fine comb herself.

"Dora was small for her age but swift on foot. She was told when on the street going to school that she must walk ladylike and not run and act like a boy. But when it was so cold and nothing but shoes covering her little feet, when her feet got cold and she was out of sight of home, she used to run like a deer.

"Grandma taught her how to knit and put her to work knitting some cotton hose. Dora can remember that stocking leg, how long it was and how she hated to sit still, with no one to talk to, and knit a long stint, that was what grandma called it. She put a piece of thread as a mark in the hose and Dora had to knit a certain number of rounds to the mark before she could put her work up. Yes, it was work for small fingers all alone by herself. Dora doesn't remember how or why she dared to do it, but one day when she was longing to get out doors she took out grandma's mark and put it back in another place. She was through quicker that day, so the next day she tried it again but grandma found it out and boxed her ears so hard. In the skirmish she broke one of the knitting needles. How she did it Dora could never make out but in the melee while she was crying so hard in came grandma Dobson. What she said and did Dora does not remember, only this much, with only a few of her clothes and without seeing grandpa to say goodby and not wanting to say goodby to Grandma Avery this 11 year old little girl went with her grandma she loved so much. It was County Fair time and grandma had come to town with her daughter and was staying with her son. Dora went to the fair with her cousins. She rode in one of those little boxes that swung loose. When they turned it round, you could see all over the fair grounds. She had so many rides on it. The man would let her stay in instead of having it go empty or someone would take her in with them. That is all she remembered of the fair.

"She went back to Uncle Abel's with grandma the next day. A cousin wanted Dora to stay with her while her husband was away threshing. She would give her a dress. Lina would have her sleep at the front of the bed and when the little boy would cry in the night she would wake Dora up to rock him. Afterwards Dora went back to Uncle Abe's.

"Aunt Ann came from Roscoe and took grandma and Dora home with her. Grandpa Dobson was already there. Dear old grandpa, how Dora loved him. Dora was not very long there for when she did not like to work or got punished grandma interfered. The sheep had to be watched in the orchard on the grass and kept out of the garden. Dora took a book with her and forgot the sheep and so got into trouble. Dora ran to grandma, so Aunt Ann said she could not keep Dora and grandma together, and she wrote to Aunt Cynthia. So one day they drove to Lodi and she was left with Aunt Cynthia. Now she was her girl again.

"Some of the things Dora remembers in this new home--it was a tiny house and five of us lived there--Uncle and Aunt, Fred, the cousin Aunt kept when he was a baby, and Otis, a baby just toddling around and bound to play at the stove and so many burns on his little hands.

"When Uncle consented to take me into the family, grandpa, mother's father, told him he would help if he did and gave him the 40 acres where they lived. One day Uncle took Fred to his father's house and left him. Aunt went to bed, was out of her head and talked all sort of things. At last Uncle went and brought him back and Aunt got well.

"Dora milked the cow that fall and one day while milking her, the cow stepped on Dora's little foot. She could not make her step off no matter how hard she pounded her. Finally her screams brought help.

"That winter Dora went to school through the woods, a two mile walk all alone. She was dressed warm--cotton flannel bloomers fastened below the knee, woolen skirt, yes a cotton chemise first, then these other clothes and then a tight waist and skirt gathered on which came to the ankles, woolen hose and shoes but no overshoes. Coat and hood finished, oh yes, mittens. She was warmly clad, of course, but oh the cold feet. Dora became quite a runner those days. At school she had for a teacher Laura Weed who was her teacher when in Lodi. Dora remembers how the boys teased her, making her jump over the broomstick with a boy she did not like. It took two of them to do it.

"Dora was 12 years old that winter. In the spring Dora with the rest of the family moved on to Uncle's home place. There were two of his young brothers in the family and Aunt had a baby boy that Dora took care of most of the time. There was no school as it was farther away.

"Baby John had to be tended for he had scalded his head and it was a mass of sores. Dora had her first doll that winter and though Aunt told her she had better not let John play with it yet he had it and broke it. Little she cared. John was better than any doll.

"Dora lived in the woods now and learned to ride horseback after the cows on Uncle's army horse that he brought when he came out of the army.

"Oh, Dora can remember too many things now so will say goodby."

"Otto Reed came often, at last I began to think he was coming to see me so when he came I would go out of the room and grandma said I was just like my mother. Otto had wanted her, but my last thought was of getting married, but as time passed had to think of what to do for a living, so when school opened, started going to school, thinking of teaching again and then thoughts of what I was going to do with my baby for grandmother could not care for him, if I wasn't there, and then Mr. Sheldon asked to take me home one Sunday night. Was I surprised. We were just speaking acquaintance. He was superintendent of the Sunday School and I was a teacher. Well he took me home but I did not ask him in. Soon the cousins Ausie, Rose and Mami came and stopped on their way home. 'Are you going to let Mr. Sheldon come to see you?', they asked, well you ask Uncle Ben if Mr. Sheldon used tobacco and if he does he won't come any more. That was the decision right then. You see I hated tobacco; Uncle Arnold wasn't too clean in the use of it and we had many a word battle over it in the spitting and he said that I was just the girl that would get a man that used it, so I made up my mind not to keep company with anyone who used it. The next morning when we were starting for school, Mami came running and said 'He don't use it, he don't use it,' so that was the beginning and when we reached school was a trifle late and when I opened the door there was a buzz from all around the room. I only went to school a couple more weeks. A widower soon makes known why he wants to keep company with a woman and to me it was a way out to my baby with me and he was a good man, and a good looking man. He had a family and I a son. We could be a help to one another. All the hilarity was gone out of my life, sorrow had made me an older woman than my years called for, so at 25 I was ready to tackle a big job with the Lords help and I never had any regrets. I always went with his friends, older ones, and was always looked upon as older than I was. What did it matter, my new life had begun.

"Now I have had twenty years as a widow and have seen all but one of my children laid away but his children have been good to me and their children also. I am proud of my grandchildren, everyone. So ends my remembrances.

"Dear old grandfather and grandmother, as I look down thru the years, I admire them. They raised a large family and helped with the raising of grandchildren. They lived in a time when hard work and privations were daily theirs. They were good to their children in their way. Grandfather was more an autocrat in his own house but that was the way with father Wallace the old men of that day were like that, but their children were a good deal different. Uncle Arnold was different from his father perhaps, and coming out of the army after 4 years, made him unfit for the active life of the farmer. He did not like it but what else could he do. Mr. Sheldon and he were boys together. He stayed on the farm and our farm is still ours, but it was by hard work that we kept it, after we were married. Property as well as money has a way of slipping out of one's hands as you too have found out. Some keep it and get too much we sometimes think but what does it matter in the long run. Things we used to think we must have, we want no longer and just a little while longer we will leave only a memory behind us. I am thankful for what Aunt and Uncle did for me, and grandfather and grandmother and all those who helped to make me what I am, and above all else for the dear Lord helping me thru all these years and not forgetting me, and keeping our dear ones safe, and there will be no dark shadows when Jesus comes to carry His loved ones home.

"I am going to send on these last of my remembrances, something to help you while away a few weary hours as they have done for me in writing and thinking of days gone by, happy ones, sorrowful ones.

"Now, I am almost home. Love, Dora."

The following written by Dale Owen Dobson, half-brother to Dora Louise Dobson-Sheldon, was supplied by Irving DeFrance.

MY FATHER WAS A SPIRITUALIST PIONEER

"As the years roll along and I am no longer young, I still believe that it is not too late to honor the memory of my father. He was a doctor in the mail-order business, selling herbs and in many ways helping the sick. His clients wrote him from all over the world and his clientele grew larger as more and more people had faith in him. His fees were not any greater than two dollars for one month's treatment and became a repeating business. His average income was fifty dollars a day, which in those times, the late 80's and early 90's, few could boast.

"His life work was in doing good to and for others and it is for this reason that I would like to mention the interesting episodes as I can now remember them and as they were published in the Jackson County Sentinel, a newspaper still in existence at Maquoketa, Iowa.

"The background and start of my father's business is unimportant, but his great success and build-up blossomed out in that little town of Maquoketa. His herb formula and method of honest belief that he could bring health into many of the homes and to folks praying for assistance brought him a wonderful clientele --all through the mail.

"He was soon able to build a large home and in it he had his office. There was no mail delivery in those times. He had to go after his mail 3 times a day and carry a basket full of medicine to be mailed out.

"His manner of dress was usually a black suit and a stove pipe hat. A reddish beard adorned his chin. The money came in faster than he could use and he would pass it out to different friends who were in need. In this way he became popular, of course, and while he did not seek a political office they put his name up for Mayor. He was elected by a very large majority. While he was Mayor, the city needed a better place for its council and for the affairs relative to the requirements of the town.

"Out of his own pocket he spent $21,000 for a City Hall and topped it with a 4-face clock that had a bell as large as the Liberty Bell. This building was rented to the city for a nominal sum and, as for the clock, the city paid $35 a year for the use of the bell for a fire bell. The furniture in the building was also bought and paid for by my dad, because he loved to do good and he loved the people. It was occupied by the city fathers for many years until they bought a building of their own.

"Even before he was Mayor he went into Chicago and bought street lamps and had them erected on the streets of Maquoketa, and he paid out of his own pocket to have them lighted every night. The town being small, of course needed only about 35 lamp posts and until a better light was had they burned oil.

"He was enterprising, saw the needs of others, and still wanted to do good. Those were the days of horse and buggy and farmer's wagons, so he had a public horse trough installed at a prominent corner next to the flour mill. Wanting to do more good, he had public drinking fountains installed on the main street for the use of man and dog. The townsfolks surely did appreciate what he did for them at his own expense and desire--THEY SHOULD.

"My father was a spiritualist and in his practice he was known as Dr. A.B. Dobson, clairvoyant Physician. Ever faithful to his belief, sincere in all of his acts and deeds, in his earnestness with his fellow men, he was open-minded to all forms of religion. He sent his daughter to a Catholic Convent at Lyons, IA, for musical training.

"He was a most unforgettable character and as another act of his life, he outfitted the town band with stove-pipe hats and sent 20 of them to Clinton, IA, for a week that they might play for the Mississippi Valley Spiritualist Camp meeting.

"One very cold winter--and Iowa is known for that--but this particular winter the temperature was 40 degrees below, he placed an advertisement in the Jackson County Sentinal thus: 'If any poor families are in need of shoes they may go to School Bros. Shoe Store and I will pay for them.' He bought $600 worth in one day.

"He liked the Spiritualist Camp meeting and he would listen to the Salvation Army on the street every night and always would toss them a dollar on the bass drum which was put down for that purpose; and when they marched to their hall he'd go and give them another donation. He loved religion under any name.

"The cold winters bothered my father a lot, so one winter he took the family and all his assistants to Jacksonville, FL, but after 6 months there we returned. The citizens were so glad to see us that the entire population--with a band--met us at the station, like they would meet a conquering hero.

"In conjunction with his business my father had purchased several buildings on the main street, the rents from which included some stores and lodgings. He also built 12 houses for which he charged only $6 per month and one house he gave to a poor relation. All of the income from his business and investments went mostly to help others. In nearly every mail he received testimonials from cures his medicine had been responsible for. His work grew out of all proportions to his strength. Mail came from Germany, France, Italy, South America and other places. All were seeking health and help and every letter he received he answered by hand thus giving that personal touch in writing that seemed to give a better understanding. The business was repeating month after month and year after year. His first month's treatment was $2. After that $1.15 for the package of herbs and directions.

"Iowa used to have heavy rains and wind storms and still has, but no cyclones ever visited Maquoketa. If a storm came in the night, dad would herd all the family into our storm cellar. On our building I counted 10 lightning rods. My father was afraid of storms. He had written to the Chamber of Commerce at San Jose, CA, asking about the weather conditions. The literature he received from there gave him the idea to move to California. He decided to sell out and move. He had a friend who was a station agent and from him he worked out arrangements for a new box car to put our household effects in. It became the only freight car ever to be attached to an Overland Limited so our goods beat us to San Jose by about a week. The car standing on the side track cost plenty for overtime.

"It was in 1891 that we arrived in California. 'Twas necessary to have a place for our furniture which had to go into storage, but my father got busy and bought property, three lots for 3 houses, one for each of us children and an office and home for himself. Time and sickness took a hand in the procedure. Overwork also had a hand in the undoing of plans and my wonderful father passed into spirit.

"What I have said in this story can all be proven and I have not hesitated to glorify the memory of my dad.

"Owen passed away Sep. 19, 1957 -- had several heart attacks."

No children.

"Note: The following information is not all quoted from Tiffanys in America, but is compiled from that and from other sources. (and received by this compiler.)

"The date of James Tiffany's birth is not known. His first child, Elizabeth, was born in 1689. He must have been at least 65 years old at time of death. His youngest child, Noah, was then 12 years old.

"By Bethia, his first wife, James Tiffany had thirteen children: Elizabeth; Joseph; James; Samuel; Benjamin; Anna; Rebecca; Sarah; Mary; Martha; Lydia; Bathsheba; and John.

"By his second wife, Elizabeth, he had four children: Jonathan; Kesiah; Alethea; and Noah.

"The foregoing names are listed in order of birth. Elizabeth died at age 43; James at age 79; Samuel, 80; John, 78; Jonathan, 3; Noah, 25. Of the other children of James we have no record as to date of death.

"James, the third child of James and Bethia, is the ancestor of Charles Lewis Tiffany, the New York jeweler, while our family is descended from John. We go back four generations (Milton, Thomas, Thomas, John) before we find the common ancestor.

"The descendants of the second James have produced a number of famous men. Beginning with his name, we trace through Ebenezer and Comfort Tiffany to Charles Lewis Tiffany and his sons, Louis Comfort and Charles Lewis, Jr.; through Ebenezer, Joseph and Comfort to Otis Henry Tiffany; through Gideon and Sylvester to Alexander Ralston Tiffany; through Benjamin, Benjamin 2nd, and Nelson Arnold to Nelson Otis Tiffany; and through Benjamin, Benjamin 2nd and Otis to John Wesley Tiffany.

"The success which Charles Lewis Tiffany, grandfather of the present Charles Lewis, attained as a jeweler is too well-known to require comment. He was an artist as well as a business man. His son, Louis Comfort, father of present Charles Louis, is also a brilliant artist. He does not shine by reflected light, but has made a name for himself as a painter and, more recently, as a designer and manufacturer of stained glass windows, in which work he is recognized as being without a peer in the world. I was interested while in Duluth, MN, during the summer of 1920, to find a Tiffany window in the Public library. He has won many prizes, and many of the finest buildings in the United States and in foreign countries have been beautified by his art. He has established the Tiffany Foundation with several million dollars endowment to aid worthy students of art.

"In the Mentor Magazine for April 15, 1919, appears the following: 'Preeminent in the manufacture of fine cut glass, America has also produced a remarkable colored glass known as the Tiffany-favrile glass. Mr. Louis C. Tiffany established his furnace at Corona, L.I., and is still the guiding spirit in this very extraordinary art industry.'

"After a discussion concerning the color effects and the technique of securing them, the article continues: 'This glass is used not only in making exquisite shadow-vases and table ware, but lends itself to the creation of windows, memorial tablets, and mosaic mural decorations. A glass curtain completed within recent years for the National Theatre of Mexico City stands as the supreme achievement of Mr. Tiffany's genius. Twenty craftsmen in mosaic in glass were employed in its construction for more than fifteen months.'"

During the drive for prohibition he was a Temperance Lecturer (in his nephew Guy Kinan's words - a nephew whom he and his mother raised, 'and a darned good one!') He was a Baptist Minister (one of the circuit rider ministers) and farmer. He also pastored Bates Baptist Church at Sycamore, PA, Greene Co. which he attended with his parents as he was growing up. 1914-16, he was Captain in the Salvation Army and held a post in Wheeling, WV. Shortly before I was born he took a job with the B. & O. R.R. but always remained very active in the church. The Parshall men in his line always taught their sons many trades and his father was no different. He was a very good carpenter too having built several houses and just finished remodeling a kitchen the last day of his life. He was always a very active man. He died quietly in his sleep from heart failure."

Raymon Tingley's notes clearly state that William married second Jan. 17, 1772 and he has 9 children total shown for William, one more than given in the Jenks genealogy, which also gives his second marriage date as Jan. 17, 1767. In some children's record a birthdate is not shown and for a few of these a marriage date is given. Without further proof or research, it is impossible to be absolutely certain which of these children are of second marriage and which are of first marriage. Assuming William's second marriage date was Jan. 17, 1772 we have the children as shown above. If marriage date of Jan. 17, 1767 is the correct date of his second marriage the children, Job, Luke and Ruth, would belong to second marriage and would not be Tingley descendants.

Between Esther and Ruth there are apparently approximately 4 years assuming no children were born between those two. Likewise, between Job and Luke there are approximately 4 years, again assuming none of these children were born between Job and Luke so it is a toss up at this point and it is assumed Raymon's notes are accurate as it is desired that no Tingley descendant be omitted. Thus Job and Ruth and their descendants are in question at this point and may or may not belong in the Tingley book. Perhaps someone has proof and will kindly inform the compiler of this record. Luke and Diana were born after 1772 so these are definitely not Tingley descendants and are being omitted. Birthdates for Mary and Lucy are unknown at this point and they also may not belong in the Tingley family. That will have to be determined after their dates have been found.

About 1797 they moved from Morris Co., NJ and subsequently in 1800 to what was called the Red Stone country in Fayette County, McClellandtown, PA, where he married second and where he spent the remainder of his life and where many of his descendants still reside. He engaged in milling and flat-boating to New Orleans returning via New York. For several years he kept a hotel in Masontown, PA, and carried on a shoe factory, bringing his leather across the mountains from Maryland and Virginia in a wagon. A man of rare talent for business and affairs. He laid the foundation of the fortune which his descendants have ever since enjoyed[562]. He married second, Anna Strubel and third widow Mary (Brown) Grove. By his second wife he had a daughter Anne, therefore she was not a Tingley descendant.

The last marriage of Elias was a bit unusual. After retiring from business, he had moved in with his son Elias to spend his remaining years. Mrs. Mary Brown, the mother-in-law of his son Elias had also come to live with her daughter Hannah Matilda Parshall, and the elderly couple were married[595].

From Mrs. Fedorchak, the compiler understood that the children shown in Vol. I under 07-00296 belong in this family. However, the compiler believes some of the children belong in each family, 07-00296 and 07-00301 as evidenced by the two children who are juniors. Thus William, Jr. and those children listed following his name down to the next Junior are shown here and the others are shown as children in 07-00296 until further research can be done on this question.

dren which should entitle him to some consideration, 'when he comes up before St. Peter for admittance through the pearly gates', into the City of Peace. Grant that he may receive it. But Cynthia is also entitled to a rich reward beyond the river, from the fact that she adopted no less than 8 orphan children and reared them to man-and womanhood, besides her own. God will surely bless such deeds of kindness wherever bestowed upon the needy and destitute ones of earth, 'For he that giveth a cup of cold water in my name' says the Christ, 'shall not lose their reward'.

"Among those whom Cynthia adopted was the Rev. Frank J. Palmer, a pioneer Yakima Valley College teacher and Episcopal minister, who died Sunday Dec. 24, 1972 in Yakima Valley Memorial Hospital of injuries received in a car crash Saturday night.

"The Rev. M. Palmer, 74, of 911½ S. 21st Ave., was chairman of YVC's division of languages and literature from 1929 to 1962, when he became dean of faculty. He retired from the college by 1964 but continued his ministerial work.

"He was ordained as an Episcopal Church deacon in 1964 [sic] then as a priest in 1952 [sic] at St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Yakima. Until 1968, he served as a vicar at St. John's Mission in Union Gap.

"Born in Maquoketa, IA, the Rev. Mr. Palmer attended the Univ. of Oregon, where he received highest honors in English literature in 1921. He was a member of the American Association of University Professors, Phi Beta Kappa and the National Retired Teachers Association.

"At YVC 35 years, the scholar was honored in 1966 by having the former circular library named Frank J. Palmer Hall.

"Before coming to Yakima, the Rev. Mr. Palmer had taught in Eugene, OR high schools."[216], supplied by Irving DeFrance.

"In Rushville, Ind., Feb. 19th, 1887, of dropsy, Joseph B. Frazier, aged 37 years, 2 months and 8 days.

"Funeral from the Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. W.H. Sands; interment at East Hill Cemetery by Ivy Lodge K. of P.

"Joe Ben (as he was familiarly known) was a universal favorite with this people. None knew him but to love him. Left in infancy fatherless, he by the loving, tender care of a kind mother was guided to the years of maturity.

"On February 27, '85, his mother passed over the river to her reward, leaving him singly and alone, to await the summons to go hence, at that time none thought that he would be called to pass away so soon.

"None appeared more robust or promised longer life than he. Yet in less than a year disease took fast hold upon him, and through these long weary months of suffering, a more patient sufferer it has never been ours to witness.

"For seven long months he has been confined to the room in which he died, and during all this time not a murmur or complaint has been heard. He hoped to recover, yet was perfectly resigned to submit to the divine will.

"On February 15, '87, at his own request he was baptized and received into the Presbyterian Church.

"The vast audience which filled the Presbyterian Church to overflowing at his funeral, as also the large procession which followed his remains to the cemetery, speak far more than words as to the high appreciation in which the deceased was held. Peace be to his ashes."[216]

Since Alice's record, long ago, was typed ready for the printer, the following which should be with her record in Volume IV is given here, to be in the same volume --

"Written by Alice Sophia (TOWER) ROBERTS April 7, 1931" and sent to the compiler by Alice Herzberg:

"Rev. N. F. TOWER was married to Miss Rachael STEVENS, April 7, 1850 and from the wedding gifts is a large tablespoon also 1 teaspoon of sterling silver now heirlooms, handed down to Mrs. Alice S. 'TOWER' ROBERTS. Later to become the property of Ethel E. (ROBERTS) STANSFIELD. They are now - Apr. 7, 1931 eighty one years old.

"My Father Rev. N. F. TOWER was born in Dearborn Co. Indiana, Feb. 10, 1821 and died near Laurel, Franklin Co. Ind., Oct. 7, 1894.

"My Mother Rachael (STEVENS) TOWER was born May 11, 1829 near Hartford, Ohio Co. Kentucky. And passed away at her home near Laurel, Franklin Co. Indiana, Monday Feb. 24, 1896. I am their daughter Mrs. Alice S. (TOWER) ROBERTS. Born near Hartford, Ohio Co. Kentucky, at my grandfather

Henry STEVENS home. Mine was a premature birth. I weighed 1½ lbs. (one pound and a half). Coming to Indiana with my parents when a small child when my Father owing to his health was transferred from Kentucky Conf. to Cincinnati, (Ohio) Conference. Later to the Southeastern Indiana Conf. The water in KY, did not agree with his health hence the changes.

"I was married to Jasper Wallace ROBERTS Feb. 20, 1879. (See 09-01831, this vol.) To our blissfull [sic] union three children were born - LeOtis Alva ROBERTS born August 28, 1880, Ind. Lura Belle ROBERTS born December 3, 1882, Ind. Husband and I often talked over our past and future finally decided to come to Dakota Territory so on January 1884 after sorrow full goodbyes he boarded the train in Brookville Indiana and a few days after being snow 'bound' at Tracy Minn., he arrived in Northville Dak. Ter. He filed on Homestead, right on N.E. Qr. Sec. 22-119-05 about 5 miles Southwest of Northville Dakota Ter, where I joined him with our two little children LeOtis and Lura Belle June 26, 1885 after 5 months separation. Myself and children staying with my Mother and Father. Aside from Home sickness that became almost grievous at times, we enjoyed our new home. The country was fine, air and nights superb. Nights exceptionally cool a little cover needed at night. Crops were fine. Garden truck all that anyone could ask. Flowers bloomed, missketos [sic] 'sung' and all went merry as a Marriage Bell on up to Fall of 1887. We had broken up land enough to raise wheat to the amount of more than 1000 bushels of wheat besides oats, barley and Speltz Potatoes and lots of garden truck, pumpkins, squash and 'UM, UM,' luscious Water Mellons and muskmellons. Every year we had enough to last all winter and till gardens grew again-learned how to store watermellons so we could keep them along til away in the winter. We raised also, citron and 'Pie' mellons and for lack of apples for apple butter I made 'butter' out of Pie mellon which was good and appetizing while cooking I added a little soda and when boiled enough I added a little cinnamon and sometimes cinnamon and cloves both, as we do for apple butter. I kept a lot of bachelor-boarders and fed them almost entirely on food grown on the farm at 15 cents per meal. Making several hundred $0 [sic] by so doing, when I had a lot of boarders, I was up from 3 and 3:30AM till 11PM many days owing to the number and rush of work. For one year my grocery bill was $40, and consisted mostly of flour, salted meat 'pickled pork' if you please sugar, coffee, sorgum. And I gave them for dessert cookies or crackers for breakfast, pie or pudding for dinner, cake and sauce for supper. They paid for meals 15 cents for themselves and their hired help. 'Themselves' were Tom Louis, Fred Slater, True Miller, George Hallock. The 'Milwaukee' boys, 5 mi. south west of us. Many others 'stopped' for meals. The extras (travellers) paid 25 cts per meal. We struggled through drouths, hotwinds, blizzards, sickness in family of which four years of, I was not exempt. A good share of the time my husband doing the work in the house and out of doors and being a nurse to me of sterling worth. Also the death of our only son LeOtis A. 'Seeking first the kingdom of God and his richeansness' [sic] the needfull [sic] things of this world were 'added unto us' and we over came every obstacle and got to where my husband thought we could buy more land. He being determined I should have Land in my own name so we bought on wheat crop payment plan the South East Qr 22-110-65 of Edward Croak Waterloo, Iowa and he later on desiring to make a change we settled up paying balance in cash and I received a Warranty deed of same. We also battled with mortgages and interest but Thank God the mortgage was cleared off our home and we did rejoice when it went. My husband made provision where by the mortgage on my place can be paid.

"Time wor [sic] on till Mar. 26, 1888 when Ethel Elizabeth was born, weight 5 3/4 pounds. And the evening and night, of March 25 a big snow storm set in and blowed and snowed all day the 26 but Ethel didn't cry any. Mrs. Fred Thayer came up in that storm to take care of baby Ethel til we could get Mrs. Isenhour there.

"She appeared inclined to heart trouble: Dr. Thompson worked with her long and earnestly-for a time her heart beat so violently and palpitated so hard, it seemed impossible to regulate it, the heart action could be seen and heard across the room. As soon as possible, they got Mrs. Isenhour there. We got along nicely. Mrs. Isenhour staid [sic] 6 or 7 days I believe (no 10 days) then she went home as Mrs. Manning was there to do work and she could take care of me and Baby Ethel, I was in bed six weeks. After that, was in bed most of the time for three months. Not able to work any for a year. When Ethel was three years old we attended a 4th of July school pickinic [sic]. They invited us as LeOtis attended school there for several months at the 'Taylor' school. We wondered how she would perform it being her first experience at 4th of July doin's. But, glad to say none but those who knew, would ever have thot it was her first venture. She was at home with everybody. Talked when talked to. Played with other children. Mrs. Hi (Mary) Taylor was teacher in charge. They put on a short program. Mr. Marivice Moviarity Atty was speaker of the day and gave a truly Patriotic address well calculated for a 4th of July address. It was a neighbor county school entertainment and we were thoroughly entertained.

"Time wore on til May 5, 1897 I made my first visit home, to Indiana. Riding all the time from 7AM May 5 to 7PM May 6 good and tired we-Ethel Elizabeth and I landed on the platform in Rushville Ind. Coming in on the great 'Mormon' Route. No one to meet us. Had not gotten their mail. We tried, and hoped, to meet the bus there, but it had gone and the Depot Agent tried to help us out.

"When the call came for volunteers for the Spanish American LeOtis Alva enlisted in Co. F (of Aberdeen S.D.) 1st Reg. S.D. Inf. and was mustered into United States service at Sioux Falls S.D. sometime in April 1898. He gave his young life on his countrys alter [sic] early-died of measles -pneumonia about 9 A.M. Monday May 23, 1898. His last words on earth was, 'Mother--Jesus'. He went down the Valley and Jesus was with him. I was telegraphed for-was there when he died and was attended by Major Chas. A. Howard and Mother, Capt. Chas. A. Brockway and Chaplin Daley. The Regment Marching with reserved arms to the Omaha Depot Sioux Falls Tues. May 24, 1898 and I was started on my homeward way. Time wore on Jesus bound up our wounded hearts with his Grace 'sufficient'.

"After nearly 26 years --25 yr and nine months--my husband Jasper W. had not been out of the state of South Dakota, but wanted to go and visit his Mother (whom for years before we had thought dead) I faltered at the thought of started [sic] with him as he had been sick for two years of that dread disease-diabetes-miletus [sic] and was nearly blind-quite blind. But, as in all things I took it to the Lord in Prayer and he opened the way and on Wednesday Oct. 13, A.D. 1909 7:30 A.M. we left Millett, S.D. for Adel, Iowa. At the change in Sioux City, Iowa he had a light stroke of Paralysis but recovered in a short time - 20 minutes perhaps- sufficient for our next change and I took him on regardless of my aching heart and desire to go back home. 'He that puteth his hand to the plow must not turn back'. Our next change was at Manila, dear husband was almost exausted [sic], so glad we had to stay til morning. Left Manila 9:25 A.M. Thurs. and had one more change at Henderson- arriving in Adel, Iowa Thur. 1:20 P.M. Oct. 14, 1909. I got a driver and rig as soon as I could and we started for Mother's. Dear husband could hardly wait to see his Mother and he was so tired but kept saying I am alright. I could see everyday for six months he was rapidly failing and his preparations for Heaven was growing brighter his prayers were deeper his hopes brighter. Our visit was all anyone could ask of a visit. Mother Roberts, Aunt Jennie Woster and (Cousin) Bessie Jenkins did all they could to entertain us. Was especially good to Jasper and it did my heart good to see them in their earnestness to make him comfortable and happy and he said on that fatal Sunday morning as we were starting to Adel to church 'I have enjoyed every minute of it'. He was talking to Mother about his visit. It was so quiet and still there and he seemed to feel more rested, but I could see him slowly but surely going. We arrived in Adel in time for 11 A.M. services. It was Old Folk day under auspices Epworth League and while they were singing the opening song 'All Hail the power of Jesus Name' he was stricken with Paralysis from which he never rallied. We were taken from the church to the home of a friend A. Gor Woster we were going to visit and there our Loved one passed away about 9 P.M. Monday evening Oct. 25, 1909. All necessary arrangements being made I started on my lonely homeward way Tuesday Oct. 26, 1909 5:20 P.M. arrived in Mellett Wed 7:30 P.M. by special Request of Bro. Will. H. Roberts we were taken to his home in Northville S.D. and on Thurs. Oct. 28, 1909 the funeral Services were held in the M.E. Church at 2:00 P.M. Rev. J.M. Hunter officiating. Hon. Frank Mariner conducting funeral Cortege and our Beloved husband and father was laid away in the Northville Cemetery to await the Resurrection Morn. In the 'Lot' with our son LeOtis A. at the grave when at the reading 'Earth to Earth and dust to dust' Mr. Mariner threw in Roses, instead of 'clods' and we were all so glad he did, and our eldest daughter Lura Belle said 'I am so glad Mr. Mariner threw in roses instead of dirt.'

"When God verifies his will he gives us strength to bear our loneliness, and his Grace 'Sufficient.'"[612]

Upon inquiring about 08 Urbane Boyd born April 27, 1882 at Harford, PA it was learned from his nephew, Reuben Jay Summers, that he died Nov. 25, 1960 unm. in a Binghamton Hospital. "He had requested that relatives not be notified and had saved enough for his funeral expenses. There had been a grave site reserved for him on the family lot at Gibson, PA." On a verbal consent with his brothers and sisters Jay had the remains moved Nov. 15, 1973 by Scholderer's Funeral Home at Binghamton, NY to the family lot at Gibson, PA.

In July 1932, Charles Jay Tingley 09 unm. had been staying with his sister Eva J. Harding at Glen Head, Long Island. One evening he told Aunt Eva he was going into New York City to buy a suit. He was never heard from since. He parked his car at the railway station. Jay and his brother Lee happened to go to Glen Head and found their Aunt Eva very upset. Jay had just graduated from Penn State College and Lee had taken him to New York vicinity for a prospective job. Jay contacted the Missing Persons Bureau. He worked with the detective, Lt. McGee, for about two weeks during the summer of 1932 but no trace could be found. About 1939 he was presumed dead by Court Order and Jay's mother, Ada P. was appointed administratrix of his estate.

INSTRUCTIONS

Two types of numbers will be found in this book. One, the family number, consisting of seven digits. An example is 09-02207, where the 09 indicates that the family is of the ninth generation and the 02207 indicates that it is the 2,207th family of that generation. The second type of number, the number of an individual as a child, consists of nine digits. An example is 09-02207-04, where the 09 indicates that the individual is a child of a ninth generation family, the 2207 indicates that the individual is a child of the 2,207th family of that generation, and the 04 indicates that the individual is the 4th child of that family. Birth dates will indicate whether or not the correct sequence of the children is known or was known (no birthdate, or dates not in sequence, sequence was probably not known when listed).

The arrangement of the book is by family numbers. Immediately preceding each family, in the center of the line will be found the family number corresponding to that family. At the beginning of the paragraph describing a family will be found the number of the head of the family as a child. This enables one to trace a line back to the beginning, that is, back to Palmer.

Under each family those children appearing elsewhere as heads of families will have, following their birthdate, the family number of the family of which they are the head, or, if married to another Tingley descendant, that child may be the spouse in that family if not shown as the head of that family. This enables one to trace the descendants of an individual.

The numbers appearing in the index are family numbers. It will be noted that some of them have a prefix "S". Such a number following an individual's name in the index indicates that the person is not a Tingley descendant, but is a spouse of a Tingley descendant. Thus STERLING, Emma May S09-02207 was the wife of Charles Herbert Tiffany, 08-00937-07 when he became head of family 09-02207. She is found in the paragraph just below the family number and before children are listed in the family.

When the number following an individual's name in the index has no "S" prefix that number is a family number under which the individual will be listed as a child. Thus, TIFFANY, Florence Emma 09-02207 is found in the ninth generation, 2,207th family and is the fourth child shown.

To trace one's own line back to the beginning, that is, back to Palmer, one should start with his own name and the number which follows his name in the index. For example, TIFFANY, Julia Hempstead 09-02207 will be found in the 9th generation, 2,207th family and is the 6th child. The number after her name here, as a child, tells where she will be found as head of a family, with her husband and the children, in the next generation. If no number is shown, she was not married (or it was not known) at the time the book went to press.

Her father, at the beginning of the paragraph for family 09-02207 has a number preceding his name 08-00937-07. This says that he was the 7th child in the 937th family of the 8th generation, Charles Herbert Tiffany. By looking up the 937th family of the eighth generation (vol. II) it will be found that Charles is the 7th child and the number after his name there is 09-02207. Now to trace back farther repeat as before or see instructions on page 520 since you must now follow Volume II. For finding relationships between individuals see instructions in Volume I, page 518.

Adopted children and their lines are carried in italics to distinguish them from those of Tingley blood.

When a person was known by his middle name rather than his first name, that name is underlined.
